Liquor Investigation Breaks Open Again

New Hearing Scheduled Thursday; Move Came As Report Being Drafted

BY ARCH DONOVAN
(Star Staff Writer)

The legislative liquor investigating bonfire from which it was believed the last spark had been extinguished burst forth into flame Tuesday.

Another hearing will be held Thursday afternoon, Sen. William Hern, who is presiding in the absence of Sen. Ray Babcock, announced.

The surprise move came as the committee was believed busy on its final report to the legislature. Failure of any of the witnesses to present proof of their allegations had been responsible for the early halt in the committee's work.

Walter E. Christenson, editor of the Omaha World-Herald, and Charles Hammond, as a representative of the liquor wholesalers association, will be requested to appear, Sen. Hern said. In addition, an inspector who had requested to appear to answer charges leveled at him by Frank Morrison of McCook will be allowed to testify.

New Information

"Information was given the committee that they think pertinent," Sen. Hern said in explaining the reopening of hearings after the committee had decided that its work was completed outside of making a report.

"Who gave the information?" Sen. Hern was asked.

He paused for several seconds and then blurted out, "Sen. Wellensiek."

"What is the nature of his information?" he was asked.

"That is all I can tell you," was the response. He did say that there may be additional witnesses called and that Sen. Wellensiek will give him the names Wednesday.

Information Published

"What information do you think Christensen has?" Hern was asked.

"He should have some if he has published it," Hern snapped back. "Some was printed that was not given the committee."

The Chadron senator said that no subpoenas will be issued and that he probably will carry out the committee wishes either by letter or telephone.

"They can come if they want to. They don't have to. We have no power to make them," Hern continued.

Chance to Answer

The inspector will be given opportunity to answer accusations that he accepted money from tavern operators in Omaha. The charge was made in a sworn statement of a conversation Morrison said he had with "Mr. X" who claimed to have made payments.

No reason was given for calling Charles Hammond, whom Hern said was selected as a representative of the liquor wholesalers and not as an individual. When questioned on why Hammond was called, Hern said:

"I have no information on what he (Wellensiek) will bring out."

Complete Surprise

Hern explained that the change in the proceedings of the committe came as a complete surprise to him. He said that Senator Babcock had given him the draft of a report to the legislature for consideration Monday night before leaving for Denver where he will take his wife to a hospital.

Tempers Boil Over In Senate

'War Party' Label Is Hurled At Each Other By Demos, Republicans

WASHINGTON—(AP) — Angry debate rang out in the senate Tuesday night over the Truman-MacArthur issue, with democrats and republicans hurling the label "war party" at each other in a running argument that brought tempers to the boiling point.

Sen. Kerr (D-Okla.) touched off the uproar by charging that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and some of his GOP colleagues are trying to "sabotage the bipartisan foreign policy and in doing so have demonstrated that the republican party is the war party."

"They either seek or carelessly risk expanding the Korean conflict into an all-out war with red China in the mire and jungles of continental Asia," the Oklahoman shouted.

Taft has denied advocating the use of U. S. troops to invade the Chinese mainland. He has spoken in favor of letting Chinese nationalist troops fight the reds.

Wherry Sits Down

Senator Wherry of Nebraska, the republican floor leader, called Kerr "that big wind from Oklahoma" after Kerr referred to GOP activities as a "Wherry-go-around."

At one point, Wherry and Kerr talked loudly and at the same time for several moments. Wherry sat down first, asserting: "You're the first man I ever met I couldn't outshout."

In New York, Sen. Duff (R-Pa.) said the country now is "on a tremendous emotional binge" as a result of MacArthur's dismissal when it ought to be concentrating calmly on protecting itself against Russia's growing military might.

Earlier, President Truman called off a speech he had planned to make shortly after MacArthur's world-awaited address to a joint meeting of congress at 11:30 a.m. (CST) Thursday.

The president didn't want to detract from "Gen. Douglas MacArthur's day," the White House explained.

And so the American Society of Newspaper Editors, which Mr. Truman had planned to address at 1 p.m. (CST) Thursday, will watch MacArthur on television instead.

Mac On TV

So will millions of other Americans. All major TV networks will carry the MacArthur address, while radio networks will broadcast it to the nation and the world.

California Extends Noisy 'Welcome Home' To Doug

Mac Grins As Big Crowd Breaks Through Lines

Near-Mob Scene

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur arrived home Tuesday night to a riotous welcome that almost became a mob scene when he stepped from his plane, the Bataan.

Spectators, newsmen and photographers broke through greeting lines and swarmed around the general in a tumultuous welcome that almost swamped the ceremonies at the airport.

MacArthur's plane bringing him home for the first time in 14 years touched the runway at 10:29 p.m. (c.s.t.) after a flight of eight hours, 59 minutes from Hawaii.

With deep feeling, MacArthur told the airport crowd of nearly 10,000:

"I cannot tell you how good it is to be home. In these long, long dreary years, Mrs. MacArthur and I talked and thought about home. We appreciate your marvelous hospitality and this great reception. We will not forget it."

The crowd crushed around the MacArthurs as soon as they came down the ramp of the plane, and the general stepped on the soil of his homeland.

RUNNING MOB SCENE

He wore his familiar gold-braided cap, and a trench coat buttoned high around his neck. Mrs. MacArthur wore a purple dress and young Arthur wore a maroon jacket with fur collar.

MacArthur's review of the honor guard was virtually a running mob scene. Guns boomed a 17-gun salute.

Officers and friends formed a tight circle around Mrs. MacArthur and young Arthur to keep them from being crushed. Lieut. Col. Anthony Story, MacArthur's pilot, held Arthur in his arms to shield the wide-eyed boy.

Mrs. Jean MacArthur was the first of the party to leave the plane.

MacArthur followed her immediately, to more wild cheering.

His 13-year-old son, Arthur, was third to leave the plane. Then came members of the former supreme commander's official party.

WEDEMEYER ON HAND

The three-star flag of Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of the Sixth army, was carried to the plane as the former China-Burma-India theater commander stepped forward to greet the party.

Dignitaries milled thickly as they pressed forward to shake MacArthur's hand.

As they approached the colors, MacArthur stopped abruptly and saluted. The others pulled up sharply behind him.

The general posed briefly for photographers—a wide grin on his face. Then he walked slowly in front of the honor guard. Warren and Wedemeyer followed a pace behind.

CROWD PRESSES CLOSE

The crowd pressed so closely to the general that his progress was slowed somewhat.

The crowd moved along, trying to keep pace.

MacArthur plainly was enjoying every moment of the tumultuous welcome. He waved briskly.

Lincoln Development Plan Takes Another Stride

Another step toward acceptance of the Bartholemew report for long-range development of Lincoln was taken Tuesday night when members of the Lincoln city planning commission were presented a preliminary draft for city land use and zoning.

Eldredge Lovelace of the St. Louis city planning firm, Harland, Bartholemew and associates, presented the lengthy draft which the commission held for study after discussing its provisions.

Lovelace said his firm is attempting to take advantage of previous developments in order to adjust the proposed ordinances to the peculiar needs of the city.

The commission also accepted for study preliminary plans for a housing development at Sixty-sixth and Adams. James Strauss, Lincoln, presented the plans for the development of the 10-acre subdivision.

Applications for the vacating of two alleys were granted. The first, sought by American Stores company, applied to the alley between O and N streets on Second and Third. At the request of all residents in the block, the commission granted vacation of the alley between Forty-third and Forty-fourth on F and G streets.

Chinese Retreat

Reds Dodge Battles With Allied Tanks

TOKYO—(Wednesday)—(AP)—Chinese reds were reported pulling back in North Korea today to escape battles with tank-led allied probing forces. The tanks were stabbing deep inside enemy lines.

U. S. Eighth army headquarters said there were signs of a general withdrawal on the western front. The communists also fell back in the mountainous center.

One American tank-powered unit went 15 miles north of the 38th parallel Tuesday to the vicinity of Chigyong. The patrol killed 100 Chinese during a bold expedition inside red lines within seven miles of Kumhwa and Chorwon.

Clamp Squeeze On Bases

Those are two of three big red bases on which strong United Nations forces clamped a squeeze.

The allied advances since Sunday had been handicapped by man-made fires set by reds seeking to screen their movements with smoke. Today's dispatches said the smoke clouds were lessening.

Eighth army headquarters estimated that 1,515 reds were killed or wounded in ground action Tuesday.

In the main action of the day, strong allied units grabbed valuable hill positions near Chorwon.

Contino Set To Surrender

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Attorney Gerald Kales said Tuesday night he will surrender accordionist Dick Contino to federal authorities Wednesday morning.

Contino, 20, who vanished on the eve of his induction into the army, faces charges of draft evasion.

Kales said the information that Contino would surrender came from "a member of the family," whom he declined to identify. The lawyer said he does not have "the faintest idea" where the $4,000-a-week musician is now.

A selective service spokesman disclosed that Contino had submitted reports from three psychiatrists that he is suffering from certain phobias. Nevertheless, he was ordered to Fort Ord, near Monterey, Cailf., last week. He disappeared from there Friday.

The Los Angeles Mirror said Contino is in a sanitarium in southern California. It wouldn't say where.

At San Francisco Joseph Karesh, assistant U. S. attoriey, said the charge would be failure to report for induction into the armed services.

Downtown Frisco Crowd Cheers Doug

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—General MacArthur Tuesday night received a tumultuous welcome from San Franciscans, aroused to their greatest pitch since V-J day.

Uncounted tens of thousands wildly cheered the general as he slowly moved through heavily lined highways and streets to Union Square Plaza—and at the Plaza, where he spent the night in St. Francis hotel.

Confetti and feathers, ripped from pillows, spilled from hotel windows as the procession, sirens screaming, slowly pulled through the throng.

State Sales Tax Scuttled By Legislative Committee

Two-Cent Levy Killed By 6-2 Vote; Failure Was Fourth Try By Solons

The proposed sales tax was scuttled Tuesday afternoon by the legislature's revenue committee by a 6-2 vote.

The bill (LB 296) would have placed a 2 per cent tax on most things bought in Nebraska.

It is the fourth consecutive session that a sales tax proposal has been killed.

Attempt Revival

But Senator Dwight Burney, chief introducer of the bill, said he would attempt to revive the measure on the floor.

He needs 22 votes to do so if the attmept is made within three days after the committee's action is reported to the legislature.

If the atempt is made after the three-day period, 29 votes will be needed.

The 1949 sales tax proposal met with a little better luck than this year's measure.

That session the proposal cleared the revenue committee, but was killed on the floor of the legislature.

The revenue committee also killed LB 519, providing for a tax on the transfer of documents and real estate.

The committee, however, recommended that the legislative council study the proposal introduced by Sen. Charles F. Tvrdik, Omaha.

Some Sub Men Still Are Alive

Ships Gather For Huge Rescue Effort

PORTSMOUTH, Eng. —(Wednesday) — (AP) — The British submarine Affray, missing since Monday night in the English channel, was found at the bottom of the sea Wednesday and the admiralty said at least some of its 75 men were alive.

The Affray, 1,200 tons, submerged on naval exercises at 9:15 p. m., British summer time (4 p. m., CST), Monday. She should have surfaced again Tuesday morning.

Supersonic (telegraphic) messages intercepted by another submarine, the Sea Devil, led to discovery of the Affray early (Wednesday) morning.

33 Fathoms Down.

The admiralty said the Affray was stuck to the bottom of the sea at a depth of 33 fathoms (198 feet), just southwest of the Isle of Wight in the channel.

Rescue crews ordered to converge on the area said the site was shallow enough to permit divers to descend to the sunken sub.

American, French and Belgium naval vessels joined with British ships crisscrossing the English channel throughout Tuesday night in search.

An expert at the admiralty said the Affray possibly could remain on the botom of the sea without harm to her crew for 40 hours unless she was badly damaged. She now has been submerged almost 30 hours.

Rescue men said the crew probably would be advised to bob up to the surface in "thermal escape" suits with which the sunken vessel is equipped Such a method of escape would have to be delayed until a number of rescue ships has converged over the Affray to be ready to pick up the survivors as they come to the surface.

Showers And Little Cooler Is Forecast

Courthouse Attic May Become Offices

Remember back when they were thinking of building a new courthouse?

The theme has now changed. The commissioners are considering converting the "fourth floor" —heretofore referred to as the attic—into office space.

County Engineer L. W. Weaver was instructed Tuesday to make a survey and report on the advisability of the proposal.

Weaver said later Tuesday he will limit his report to whether or nnot the plan is structurally feasible.

If Weaver's report is favorable, it is likely the proposal then will be turned over to an architect for further study.

Pay $12,000 In Rent

The motion to consider the conversion was made by Commissioner Russell Brehm. He pointed out the county now pays about $12,000 in rent for office space outside the courthouse.

Offices are now rented for the election commissioner, the county welfare department and the veterans' service center.

A brief inspection of the courthouse attic Tuesday afternoon revealed an abundance of space. Weaver pointed out that the attic is fireproof.

The question, however, is whether the several exposed steel trusses could support a floor, since they now support the courthouse roof and the third-floor ceiling. Weaver explained.

The fourth floor is divided into several rooms with uncovered floors at different levels.

Aptitude Test Seen As Draft Insurance

By JIM COUFAL
(Star Staff Writer)

Draftable university men have not stopped to look a gift horse in the mouth.

So far, 250 of them have flocked to Lincoln's two local draft boards and signed up to take the aptitude test that will determine whether or not they will be deferred to attend school.

Many of the students don't even think it is fair to defer college men. Many don't think the law will become effective. Still more feel they will be deferred a year only to be drafted half way through school.

But they come in anyway. "It's just like an insurance policy," one of them said.

The two draft board clerks, Mrs. Emma Bernard of board 58, and Mrs. Emma Ackels of board 57, explain the ruling this way:

The students get an explanatory pamphlet that shows the location of the three testing centers in Lincoln and some sample questions similar to ones that will be in the test.

They get a return post card that is to be filled in with their name and the testing center they prefer. There are three dates for the tests, and the board will notify the student of his date later.

The clerks then explain that Gen. Louis B. Hershey, national director of selective service, has promised that no students will be inducted until their test grades have been considered by their local board.

The deferment test is reported to be about 10 per cent harder than the army's officer candidate test.

W. Stuart Symington Is Named New Head Of RFC

Old Board System To Be Abolished

HST Selects Ex-Air Boss

WASHINGTON — (INS) — President Truman Tuesday named W. Stuart Symington as head of the much-criticized Reconstruction Finance Corp., which is being reorganized under a one-man rule.

Symington

Symington, chairman of the national security resources board and former secretary of air, immediately accepted the new post which must be approved by the senate.

He will replace the five-man board of directors which was involved in the sensational senate probe of charges that a White House ring influenced the granting of loans by the huge lending agency.

Announcement of Symington's appointment came as senate investigators began a job of deciding whether 800-odd letters written by members of congress to the RFC influenced federal loans

Hearings Begin Tuesday

Tt the same time, the senate banking committee reported these actions:

1. Hearings will start next Tuesday on legislation to abolish or reform the RFC, with ex-President Hoover and Jesse Jones, one-time boss of the agency, to be invited as lead-off witness.

2. The committee gave its full, formal approval to a plan to set "a day certain" for the testimony of presidential aid Donald Dawson, who has been accused of being a member of the "influence" ring.

Chairman Fulbright (D-Ark) of the "influence" investigating subcommittee ordered an inspection of the congressional letters after receiving approval from the senate banking group.

Fulbright instructed his staff director, Theodore Herz, to examine the letters "in strictest confidence" and report his findings. President Truman reportedly has charged the communications will show members of congress "pushed" the RFC for loans

Senate banking committee Chairman Maybank (D-SC) hailed the Symington appointment as "a very wise choice" and said he sees no difficulty in getting senate approval. Maybank added: "If anybody can clear things up in the RFC, Symington can. He has rendered very valuable servce to his country in the past."

At a banquet ceremony, President-elect Patrick J. "Pat" Connor, Omaha, took over the gavel from Leonard H. Powers, also of Omaha.

Tribute Paid Rev. McWilliams

"The wise accept suffering willingly, knowing it is a necessity to enable them to reach higher and better things," Rev. J. W. Goodwin said Tuesday at funeral services for Rev. Trago McWilliams, sr., associate pastor of Lincoln Christ Temple (Holiness) church, who died Sunday. The services were held at Umberger's chapel.

Rev. Goodwin is associate pastor of the Christ Tabernacle Church of Christ (Holiness) at Omaha.

"They realize," he continued, "that only through the cross can they hope to wear the crown. Therefore they receive the trials of life in a Christian spirit, without re[illegible]g or murmuring, consoled by the promise 'My grace is sufficient for thee.'

"No affliction is too heavy for the Christian to bear, for his faith upholds the burdens. He does not estimate his suffering from a worldly viewpoint, but in spirit he ascends the mountain of sorrow on which Christ suffered and died, and looks upon his trials in the light radiating from the Cross, and then he clearly sees that all is a part of God's great disciplinary plan by which he makes his servants perfect."

Album Of University Songs Is Recorded

An album of recordings of University of Nebraska songs was being prepared Tuesday afternoon and evening for sale through the alumni association.

No Demonstration For Mac's Return

There was no blowing of whistles or sirens in Lincoln Tuesday night to signify the return to the United States of General MacArthur.

Mayor Victor Anderson's office said Tuesday night that he recommended against any such demonstration because of the confusion and possible alarm it might have created, as there had been no advance notice of any such noise.

The mayor's office had received many telephone calls Tuesday, inquiring whether any demonstration would take place in Lincoln.

fourths of his class; seniors, 70 or in upper three-fourths of his class; graduate students, 75 or upper half of his class.

However, Mrs. Ackels explained, a passing grade doesn't automatically defer a student. The final decision is up to the local board.

A school deferment can be made only for one year, Mrs. Ackels said. But it is probable that the board will extend the deferment if the student's grades are satisfactory.

Here are some of the comments of draftable university youths who showed up Tuesday.

Dale Graham, 21, of Chappell, a junior pharmacy major at the U. of N., "If the rest of the test is like the samples I think I can pass it. Math and chemistry will be the easiest."

Donald C. Haldeen, 20, of Brule, U. of N. agricultural college major, "Yep. Maybe not with flying colors, but I can pass."

Harold E. Sothan, 20, Lincoln, architectural engineer major at U. of N., "I'll probably pass it. Vocabulary will be the hardest for me. This deferment will keep me out until I can get into advanced R.O.T.C."

Harold Brockman, 20, Lawrence, freshman architecture major at U. of N., "Sure I can pass it. But will it defer me for a five year course?"

Donald Wenz, 18, Lincoln, freshman chemistry major at U. of N., "It's another form of insurance. I'm already in R.O.T.C. and in the top half of m, class."

Richard E. Moulton, 21, Lincoln, junior major in architecture at U. of N., "I can pass it but it won't do any good. I don't think the law will go through. It's a good idea, though."

Two Are Slightly Hurt In Minor Auto Accident

Dorothy Hartman, 17, and Mrs. Donna Kern, 20, both of Palmyra, received treatment at Bryan Memorial hospital Tuesday night for minor auto wreck injuries and were released.

Both were riding in a car driven by Melvin Kearn, 21, of Unadilla, which was in collision with another driven by Earl Decker, 48, of Ashland.

Miss Hartman received scalp cuts and suffered shock, while Mrs. Kern was slightly cut by flying glass.

The accident took place on South Forty-eighth between Cotner and Sumner, near the back driveway into the hospital grounds.

Also in the Kearn car was Blackie Kern, husband of one of the injured, and riding with Decker were George Decker and Mrs. Chester Volser, 5029 Cleveland, his sister and brother.

Motorcycle Officer Jim Hampton, who investigated, said Kearn's machine struck the right-front of Decker's when the latter turned into the hospital.

He further claims Whitney stopped to investigate and struck him about the neck and shoulders. The suit was filed in District court. Named as co-defendant was the Manufacturers Casualty Insurance company.

400 Businessmen Attend OPS Clinic

More than 400 Lincoln businessmen and women attended three clinics Tuesday at the chamber of commerce to fire questions at two office of price stabilization officials from Omaha.

The officials, Henry Winters, counsel, and Mrs. Mary McAllister, business specialist, answered a wide variety of questions, most of which pertained to specific and often isolated subjects.

Chamber Secretary Archie J. Baley said the clinic was arranged because of the volume of questions asked by businessmen who are required to file questionnaires and schedules with the OPS office

The morning clinic was held for manufacturers, wholesalers and service industries; the afternoon session was for grocers, restaurant owners, retail petroleum dealers and garage owners; while the evening meeting treated all other retailers.

MacArthur Gets A Noisy Welcome

He was wearing his familiar gold-braid cap and regulation overcoat.

After reviewing the honor guard, MacArthur mounted the platform for a brief official welcome from Mayor Elmer E. Robinson, Governor Warren and other dignitaries.

BREAK THROUGH LINES.

The crowd broke through the lines ina virtual mob scene to follow MacArthur on his inspection of the honor guard. Officers and friends of MacArthur formed a protective ring about Mrs. MacArthur and Arthur.

There were several "MacArthur for President" signs in the crowd.

A 7-year-old South Korean girl, dressed in yellow and red costume of her country, handed Mrs. MacArthur a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. MacArthur cradled the flowers in her arm as she watched the welcoming scene, tears in her eyes.

"It's simply wonderful!" she said. "It's simply wonderful for both Arthur and me."

Mrs. MacArthur and Arthur got into the sedan with the general. They left the airport for San Francisco—15 miles away—at 8:45 p.m. (10:45 p.m., CST).

MacArthur was home.

Courage Required, Reader Declares

By J. Gordon Roberts

A reader decries disintegrating moral fibre within our nation:

"Obviously, as perhaps never before in the history of our country, we need leadership of courage and greatest wisdom to lick fear and build hope and faith that peace can be attained.

"Sad to say, such strong leadership at the head of our government has not been evident over the past few years.

"When a nation's government does nothing but foster inflation and higher taxes with no regard to waste of tax money; the people soon lose confidence and faith in the future. As a result the seeds of fear bear fruit.

"I would be inclined to doubt if even the strongest, and best possibly directed government leadership, could guide us away from the brink of disaster if the 'people' did not have faith or confidence in such leadership.

"Moreover, the people must sincerely desire peace, and fully realize that without peace, they would not enjoy freedom. Again, the people must be willing to accept excessive taxation which most certainly will offer only a limited freedom. Will the American economy accept a lower standard of Living? Perhaps for a while.

"History proves that when the moral fiber of a nation's people begins to disintegrate, the foundation of even the greatest power soon crumbles in weakness. The leaders of Russia are well aware of this fact.

"Russia can well afford to sit back behind the Iron Curtain to watch and wait for our people to become an easy prey, as our government saps the standard of our economy through the evils of excessive taxation.

"History proves that excessive taxes soon become unbearable to a people, and then the 'masses' have always turned to some other form of government.

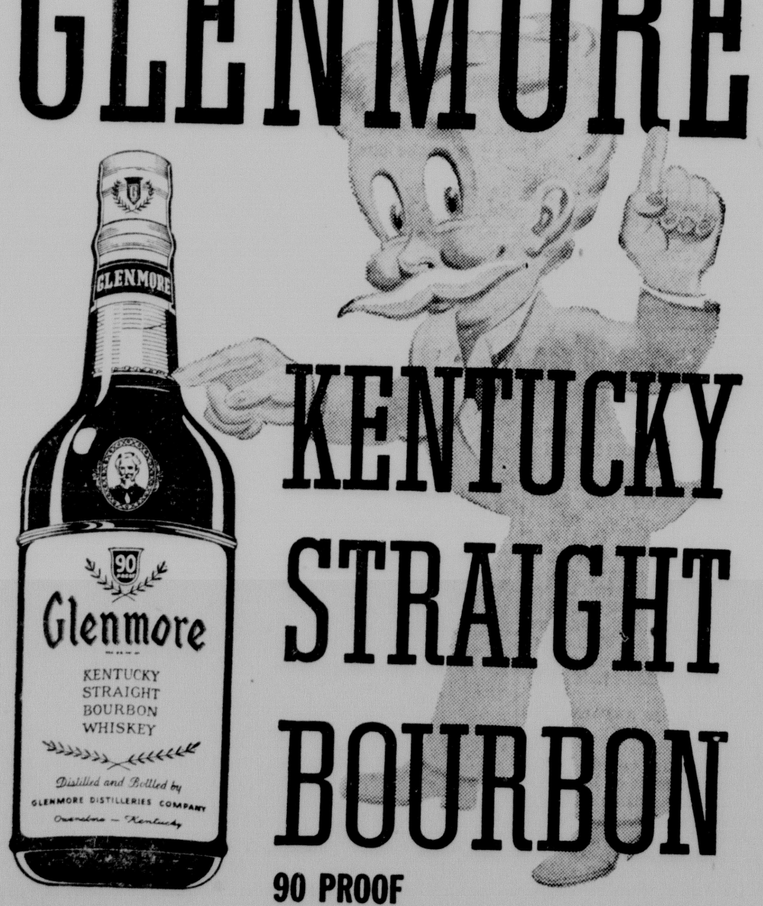

"Will the greed for taxes and profits help history repeat itself? Excessive taxes has toppled the crowns of Kings, and the rule of dictatorships, and can well topple the rule of a democracy."

Why not give your Pride a Break?

LET'S see what it means to own a ROADMASTER.

It means, first of all, that you're a shrewd judge of fine manufacture. Nowhere will you find a mechanism more skilfully fitted part to part with scrupulous precision—engineered to stricter standards of fine-car quality—than the deep-framed and durable ROADMASTER chassis.

It means, also, that you possess keen appreciation of everything that makes for unsurpassed performance.

For there's more to this dazzling beauty than its thrilling take-off. There's the surplus of power that you need to make you the master of busy traffic or open road—plus the velvet magic of Dynaflow Drive (at no extra cost, mind you).

There's the level-going luxury of ample roadweight buoyantly balanced on coil springs on every wheel—and the security of brakes specifically engineered for firm control of this great-powered beauty.

But there's still another distinction to being a ROADMASTER owner.

It marks you as one who buys wisely and well. Size for size, pound for pound, feature for feature, few cars can even approach what your dollars will buy in this finest of Buicks.

There's much more to be discovered by a visit to any Buick dealer's showroom.

There's the sumptuous softness of cushions, the custom excellence of fabrics and interior trim, the grace and charm of every line and contour.

So if you've dreamed of sometime owning a car superbly fine, there's no time like the present—and no car like ROADMASTER for making dreams come true.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Steel Priority System Is Set Up For State Roads

Nebraska's highway construction work had more of a "war atmosphere" Wednesday.

For the first time since World war II days, the state has a steel "priority" system.

The system, set-up recently by the National Production authority, is aimed at helping contractors obtain steel for highway work.

But, explained the state's chief highway engineer, R. F. Weller, steel can be obtained without priority.

Help 'Tight' Spots

The system is intended to help out in "tight" spots.

The system operates on an individual project basis, Weller said.

Eleven Nebraska applications have been submitted to the national government since the system was established on April 4, Weller said.

And one application has been approved. That's for a bridge at Alma.

Here's How

Here is the way the system operates, as explained by Weller:

Projects under construction which are having difficulty getting steel send in essential information to the state highway department.

The highway department prepares a "statement of essentiality" and submits it to the district office of the Bureau of Public Roads.

The district sends it to the bureau's Washington office. The bureau then screens the requests and makes its recommendations to the NPA. If the NPA approves, a "DO 45" (defense order, highway construction) is issued directly to the contractor, who goes with his "DO" to his supplier to get the steel.

4, 6 Weeks

All this, Weller said, takes about four to six weeks, judging from the Alma experience.

He said there will probably be some adjustments made in the procedure by July 1.

Weller said the system applies only to work under contract—there is no way of getting advance priority.

When the system was put into effect, the state highway department reviewed projects under contract and where it was evident a lack of steel was causing delay, application forms were sent to the contractors, Weller said.

In the future, he added, the department application will accompany job awards in those involving steel.

Expenses Reports By Ten City Candidates

Ten new filings of expenses by candidates for nomination to public office in the city's primary election have been received in the office of the election commissioner.

Incumbent Mrs. Roscoe S. Hill reported nothing spent on her successful campaign for nomination to the school board. Also successful were Homer L. Wright who reported expenses of $107.83 for his school board nomination and Mrs. Irma N. Laase who spent $110.80 on the same campaign.

Candidates for the nomination of city councilman reported the following expenses: Donald W. Blair, $49.4[illegible] Rees Wilkinson, $416.38; Bill DeVriendt, $445.25; John Slothower, jr., $688.50; Pat Ash, $845.98; Chauncey W. D. Kinsey, $541.53.

Of the above Wilkinson, DeVriendt, Slothower, Ash and Kinsey were successful.

Incumbent Victor E. Anderson reported $32 expended in his campaign for nomination as mayor.

Credit To Taverns Is Debated

LB 253 Killed By Solons; Denounced As 'Collection' Bill

The legislature was split wide-open Tuesday on the intent of LB 253 and the results if it were enacted into law. Result was that it was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 21 to 14.

The introducers contended that the bill would aid in policing of liquor industry and improve the quality of tavern operators.

Opponents countered with the opinion that it was making the state a "collection agency" for wholesalers and distributors.

The bill would have eliminated the "merchandizing credit" period of retailers. The state liquor commission would have been authorized to cancel licenses of delinquent dealers.

Debate Strenuous

Debate was strenuous and at points angry as the conflicting views were discussed. It was staged before a gallery of 32? Boone county rural school children and once was broken up by laughter and smiles when a baby wailed in the midst of some strong and loud words.

The supporters of the bill based their arguments on reports of the liquor commission that 75 per cent of the reported instances of illegal sale involve retailers who are poor credit risks.

That, they said, was a big reason why the proposed legislation was needed. If retailers were obligated to pay cash on delivery for their beer, it was argued, the poor credit risks would be eliminated from the business. Retailers who remained would not be tempted to sell to minors and "drunks" and after hours and on Sunday.

Klaver answered that with "I run a newspaper and people owe me about $1,300 for advertising. Why not let's all get together and pick out some state department that we want to carry on our business for us?"

Intoxicating Paper?

"I wonder," said Senator Wellensiek of Grand Island in a strong talk for passage, "if Senator Klaver thinks his newspaper is the same kind of business as the beer business. I wonder if he thinks it is as intoxicating, is the source of as much litigation, crime and misery."

Klaver got up to answer the question but was ruled out of order as Wellensiek had the floor.

As Wellensiek continued, a baby in the arms of a young woman in the gallery cried, breaking some tension and leading Wellensiek to remark "I'm sorry that my voice disturbs the children.

"But, I have a voice that carries and I think it ought to carry in a discussion like this."

Hard-Up Taverns

He then asserted "when taverns get hard up they sell to minors, and drunks. They sell on Sunday and after hours. We ought to get a better class in the tavern business."

Senator Hill of Hebron, introducer of the bill, offered the liquor commission reports which he said showed 75 per cent of the violations for illegal sale were committed by taverns "with a weak financial structure."

Senator Duis, who had been a co-introducer of the bill, previously had requested that his name be stricken. He explained that he was of the opinion it was a special interest bill with the "interests outside the state."

The majority felt wholesalers just should not sell to bad credit risks, thus taking care of any problem themselves.

The vote:

To kill: T. Adams, Beaver, Bridenbaugh, Burney, Carmody, Cole, Cramer, Duis, Hoyt, Klaver, Liebers, Lillibridge, Lindgren, Lusienski, Metzger, Moulton, Person, Shalla, Syas, Wilson.

Opposed: J. Adams, Brown, Diers, Hern, Hill, Kruetz, Lee, McKnight, McNutt, Marvel, Peterson, Tvrdik, Vogel, Wellensiek, Williams.

Not voting: Babcock, Carson, Kotouc, Larkin, Nelson, Pizer, Prohs, Shultz.

Bills advanced today included an insurance tax measure, L.B. 527 and L.B. 209 providing for a vice-chairman of the legislative council.

Hand Grenade Gives Officers Delicate Work

Detective Frank Robbins and Cruiser Sgt. Guy Dean handled one of their police assignments very, very gingerly Tuesday.

They were called to a local hotel by an excited room clerk who had found an army fragmentation hand grenade in the drawer of a veteran's room.

The grenade's pin was barely inserted and seemed ready to drop out any minute.

The two men drove to headquarters keeping an uneasy eye on the grenade, tightly clutched in Dean's hand.

Before the department could arrange for a way to dispose of the bomb. Motorcycle Officer Charles Taylor reinserted the pin, took the grenade apart and chuckled.

The deadly looking souvenir was an empty dud. The owner is a man police arrested Saturday on a drunk charge and then released on bond Monday so that he could receive medical treatment.

The fire, which originated in the basement and extended to the basement ceiling, injured no one. Children playing with matches were probably responsible for the blaze, the fire report said.

An American Giant

By J. E. Lawrence

WASHINGTON—Shortly before leaving to attend the sessions of the American Society of Newspaper Editors here, I chanced to glance through a bulletin of the United States Municipal News.

It contained a table setting forth the population of urbanized areas as of April 1, 1950. I was startled to discover that the national capital was credited with 1,281,578 men, women, and children—the eleventh city in size, a giant in a nation no longer young but grown up and mature.

Not all of these people live within the corporate limits of Washington, of course, but to all practical purposes, they constitute a concentrated metropolitan area, and the great majority of homes are those where one or more of the the family are connected with government.

Roll Back The Years

The figures brought back memories of my first visit to Washington in the excitement of the war years of the first global conflict, a somewhat pallid memory to today's high tensions. Now, years later, there still remains a thrill of first impressions, heightened by the gleaming dome of the capitol and the stately government buildings.

It is a thrill that wears well. There is just a touch of humility and awe in that first impression, which is just as strong today as it was years ago. There is an invitation to reverence in those first glimpses when one steps from the Union Station for a view of the heart of the greatest power on this earth. I have always been glad to visit Washington, and I have never been sorry when, in leaving it, its piles of stone, marble, and steel faded in the distances.

Not For Simple Men

I remember a remark the late John H. Morehead, of Falls City, serving in congress at the time after an exceptionally successful administration as governor, made to me.

Mr. Morehead was never happy in Washington. Its atmosphere weighed upon him. He was a man of simple tastes, ruggedly honest, and neighborly—"Honest John," they sometimes called him. When he voted, he wanted to know from the ground up what any bill that had his approval, contained. He had a keen sense of responsibility.

On this particular day, he and Mrs. Morehead, and my wife and I had gone to the Rock Creek zoo to look at the animals. It was peaceful there among the trees and the flowers, and I remember that I was fascinated with the snake collection. Mr. Morehead talked earnestly of the building program, the long row of government buildings, the appropriation bills that came to the floor for action, bills covering hundreds of millions of dollars to be met by taxes upon the people. And then Mr. Morehead talked about his apple orchards, and the rolling hills of the Missouri river bluffs, and of a very special place in the southeast corner of Nebraska where, as a young man, he worked and dreamed. I have no idea how many members of recent congresses in all the mad swirl of Washington today retain thoughts of the homeland from whence they come, and the people back home. They all would be the better for it, more truly representative.

A Source Of Strength

It is a source of strength. Some years later, I remember that the late Senator George W. Norris and I were visiting in his office. His eyes were fixed upon the trees and the lush grass and his thoughts were centered upon the grim struggle against drouth which the people of Nebraska were waging.

There isn't much time for that now. The mail of a member of congress, always bulky, has grown unbelievably. The demands upon time and energy have become incredible. The opportunities for reflection and research are few. The show must go on, and the music has speeded up until it is impossible to distinguish one chord from another. The hotels of which Washington boasts so many—huge, sprawling foothills—are jammed constantly and room space is at a premium.

★

Not The Same Stream

Even the Potomac has changed. It flows swiftly, deeply, to the sea but there was not a trace of the basin development that has taken place in the passing years.

And nearby is the mammoth Pentagon, its acres and acres of floor space, its endless corridors where the uninitiated can lose himself without embarrassment, and pray for some kind soul to show him the way around. It is, it seems to me, a striking symbol of the mature America, representing the new responsibilities that have come to this country in its international role, and even more, the necessities thrust upon it by a world greatly reduced in physical size and infinitely more dangerous.

It would take columns to describe the changes that have taken place in a metropolitan area which has grown from an approximate half million people to more than a million and a quarter.

The Cry For Quarters

On that first visit, I thought that the administrative departments and agencies of government constituted an impressive city in themselves. But one building gave birth to another. Old buildings have disappeared and new buildings have replaced them. Low ground, some of it bordering upon swamp, has been reclaimed to provide sites for the ever-expanding agencies of government. It is all very natural—what with the growth of government—with the American people more and more transferring their problems to Washington—but it is also a little bit awesome. The basis of the so-called "Hoover recommendations" for the reorganization and regrouping of administrative agencies becomes painfully apparent by the physical expansion of the national capital.

Offices For Congress

Since that first visit, new office buildings for both the house and the senate have been constructed. Their corridors echo to marching thousands because it seems that nearly everybody has business in Washington, and if it isn't business, there is the understandable desire of every American to have a peek at the national scene.

A few years ago, I went over to a vacant section of the old senate office building, lugging a battered typewriter, to grind out some work. It was quiet there. The office was dusty, the air a little musty. But the noise of a teeming capital was shut off, and the stage was set for thoughts of this city which has been the center of struggle for the rights of free men. It was an excellent environment to think of the giants of old, of the great debates, and crushing decisions that have marked the path of America's march. The Jeffersons and the Jacksons, the Lincolns and the Clevelands, the Wilsons and the Roosevelts, the Websters and the Clays—the whole galaxy contributing to American history seemed to be a part of this town now grown to a great city, gay and somber, but never free from responsibility. For here the hopes of the world rest upon the instinctive intuition of a nation that rules itself, and basks in the spiritual strength of freedom.

We're On The Way

I think I like the Washington of my first visit, less feverish, less befuddled, and less weighted down. But it was a Washington no one will ever know again. No individual and no political party will bring it back to life. It is gone forever, a thing of the past, and there is solace in the strength of the capital today.

Temporarily In Mothballs

The house, in marked contrast to impetuous action by the United States senate, has thrown a monkey wrench into the plan which called for rushing through a permanent program of universal military training. Unless Far Eastern developments inject a new issue, there was no sound reason why a program of permanent universal military training for American youth should be initiated without full discussion and debate. The selective service program seems to meet all of the temporary needs of this country, and with the machinery for it in full operation, it can provide men for the armed services more rapidly.

★

Acting upon a compromise proposal by Chairman Vinson, of the house armed services committee, the house without dissenting vote gave its blessing to a plan whereby a united military training commission will present within six months a plan for administering a training program. Then the house armed services committee will report the commission's plan or one of its own within 45 days.

★

Obviously universal military training is not a matter to be entered into lightly. The very first step, it would seem, is the outline of the training program. Thus far there is no concrete plan of training before the American people—no concrete proposal for the number of years a young man is to spend in the service—no acceptable estimates of the expense to the American taxpayer. When universal military training was tied in to the bill dealing with the selective service act, an admittedly clever bit of legislative strategy, it was in the nature of a blank check. The house action gives congress a chance to acquaint the American people with the details.

A New Mother Goose

An all-out, frontal attack on Mother Goose rhymes has been undertaken by a writer of children's books, Geoffrey Hall, who contends that the little folks have been corrupted, misled and frightened by the nursery woman. Accordingly, Mr. Hall has set about to correct the situation and make everything sweetness and light in the field of kiddie rhymes.

In the new version, Miss Muffet is not frightened by the spider who sat down beside her; they play together. This is intended to lessen childhood fear of spiders, which sometimes carries over into adult life. All the king's horses and all the king's men, who couldn't put Humpty Dumpty together again after his great fall, now succeed in getting him put together as good as new. This, Writer Hall points out, will put an end to all the tears which have been shed over H-D's misfortune.

Best of all, the wicked farmer's wife becomes a lovable old lady under the revised Mother Goose setup. Here is the way the children of this generation may get the story:

Three blind mice,
See how they run,
They all ran after the farmer's wife,
Who cut them some cheese with a carving knife;
Did you ever see such a sight in your life
As three blind mice?

Mother Goose, instead of being a source of meanness and cruelty, is on her way to becoming, as Mr. Hall says, a "happy Mother Goose."

G.O.P. REACTION TO MacARTHUR INCIDENT VARIES

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Capitol Hill cloakrooms have been buzzing as never before over the MacArthur incident. This is true of republicans perhaps more than democrats. The democrats are glum, the republicans elated—though not all of them.

Bob Taft expressed concern to Senator Wherry of Nebraska that the GOP may get stuck with MacArthur as its 1952 presidential candidate. Of course, this would eliminate him, though Taft didn't mention this to Wherry. Taft has been noticeably irritable, has snapped at senate functionaries and fellow senators. He got in a private wrangle with Bob Kerr of Oklahoma over Kerr's statement criticizing MacArthur.

GOP Senator Millikin of Colorado also expressed worry that Eisenhower would oppose MacArthur, which would split the republicans down the middle. Bridges of New Hampshire replied that Eisenhower was too smart to get into the middle, that Eisenhower also might differ with Truman and run the risk of being fired.

Bridges has been bustling around GOP cloakrooms more than anyone else. He told one group joyfully: "This is the biggest windfall that has ever come to the republican party."

On one occasion, Virginia's Senator Robertson, a democrat remarked to Bridges: "Well, you have a new candidate for president."

"He's better than the present president," the New Hampshire senator shot back.

"I guess there's a lot of life left in him even at 71," piped up Lodge of Massachusetts.

Actually, Lodge, Duff of Pennsylvania and Ives of New York have held some worried huddles about the MacArthur boom and how it would affect their Eisenhower boom. During one of these huddles, Ives snorted: "How in the —— are we going to get any unity around here!"

Smith of New Jersey, the former Princeton professor, has been quite critical over the fact that MacArthur wasn't left in Japan to keep the occupation intact and complete the peace treaty. But privately Smith seemed to approve of removing MacArthur from military command.

Senators Knowland and Nixon, both California republicans, are eager-beavers on the MacArthur bandwagon. But Nixon had an interesting conversation with Duff of Pennsylvania just before MacArthur was fired.

"What party does Eisenhower belong to?" Nixon asked.

Duff, one of the strongest boosters for Eisenhower, assured him that Ike was a republican.

"I hope so," declared Nixon, "He's the man for us."

Nixon, however, is now beating the bass drum on the MacArthur bandwagon.

During the first republican meeting in ex-speaker Joe Martin's office on the morning MacArthur was fired, Congressman Charlie Halleck of Indiana demanded that republicans immediately press for Truman's impeachment.

It was Bob Taft, however, who demurred. Such a move, he said, was asinine. It would be much smarter, he advised, to bring MacArthur back to the United States and build up sentiment for his case before the republican party went all-out for him.

The impeachment idea was then dropped, though Joe Martin told GOP colleagues to keep talking about it. "We've got to keep the fire burning," he said, half joking.

It was Joe Martin who adroitly masterminded the drive to invite MacArthur to a joint session of congress. At first democratic leaders were decidedly lukewarm, argued it would set a bad precedent for congress to roll out the red carpet for a general, especially one ousted for insubordination. They also felt it would be an affront to President Truman.

However, Martin handed a virtual ultimatum to his old friend, Speaker Sam Rayburn. He gave him until 2:30 Friday to agree to invite MacArthur to a joint session of congress.

"MacArthur has been away 14 years," Rayburn drawled sourly. "What's all the rush?"

So Martin extended the deadline to four o'clock.

Martin didn't say so, but the reason he pushed Rayburn was because MacArthur's office in Tokyo had given him a veiled ultimatum that the general might not speak in Washington at all unless conditions were to his choosing; also that he had to know in a hurry in order to plan his itinerary. It was also made clear that MacArthur was not anxious to answer questions before the senate armed services committee.

☆ ☆ ☆

After getting his ultimatum from Martin, Speaker Rayburn called the White House, cautioned the president that MacArthur might be made a martyr by snubbing him, so it was decided the general would be given a chance to address congress.

Rayburn then went back to Joe Martin, suggested they give MacArthur the same treatment given Eisenhower—namely, a meeting of both houses of congress in the auditorium of the Library of Congress.

Whereupon Martin issued another ultimatum. He demanded a full-dress meeting in the house chamber. Otherwise, he warned, the republicans would rent the vast Uline arena—an ice palace where the circus is held—and announce to the world that the democrats would not permit MacArthur to address congress.

Wearily, Rayburn gave in.

DETAILS OF GREAT DISPUTE HELD IN TOP-SECRET FILES

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON. — This is General MacArthur's week. Thanks to the magic device of television, the Pacific hero's homecoming will be viewed by more of his fellow citizens than anyone's in the past.

Marquis Childs

The TV screen will bring MacArthur into millions of homes with all of his sense of the dramatic. When the other military leaders — Eisenhower, Bradley, Nimitz, Halsey — returned, they could be heard by radio but television was then in its beginning. The effect this can have is as incalculable as was the reaction to the crime committee hearings.

But after the hero's welcome is over and the ticker tape is swept up, MacArthur will face the interesting problem of his future. It will not be easy to shift from the stance of gloriously acclaimed hero to that of leader of the military-diplomatic opposition to the Truman administration. This last is the role that MacArthur's passionate admirers believe he should and will take.

Such a contest could take one turn that might work particular harm to this country's future security. It could become a battle of the documents—who said what and when as spelled out on the teletypes between Tokyo and the Pentagon here.

President Truman opened up that possibility when the white house made public at the 1 p.m. press conference three official exchanges with MacArthur's headquarters. The president had unquestionably the right to declassify those documents.

But his action startled and alarmed some officials in the Pentagon who have been conditioned to regard those messages as the very top of top secrets. Most secret cables coming into the defense department are automatically circulated among the small group with special clearance to see them. Not so, however, the exchanges between MacArthur and the joint chiefs of staff.

They have been on what is called a "need to know" basis. This means that an official outside the JCS with the proper clearances informed a security officer that he had need to know the contents of a particular message. The message was then sealed in an envelope and taken by a security officer to the official who made the request. In the presence of the security officer, he broke the seals, read the message and resealed it. Understandably, then, it was a little startling to see such messages in the newspapers.

These top-secret files are known to contain much more ammunition to fire up the controversy. And significantly there is ammunition for the Truman side and for the MacArthur side.

On the Truman side are a series of messages from MacArthur telling in the critical days last November what he intended to do after he had conquered all of North Korea up to the boundary of the Yalu river. In the light of the disordered retreat that followed the intervention of the Chinese in mass, these would have a rather odd sound.

On the other side are documents showing that MacArthur's directives at the time of the first northward crossing of the 38th parallel were fuzzy and vague. They confronted the military commander responsible for the conduct of the war with a difficult, if not impossible, situation. On the basis of those telegrams, MacArthur could argue that he had no choice but to follow the course he did.

Undoubtedly MacArthur has with him a file of those all-important exchanges with Washington. But whether he has a right to release them or not is another matter. The administration would have an unfair advantage if it had the power to release the documents it chose to release, which is why republican senators backing the general have demanded that the whole exchange be made public.

This demand will grow and it may well be that the only way for the public to make a fair judgment is to put all the documents on the record. If this is not done, then the likelihood is that parts of these messages will be disclosed by the familiar Washington system of leak and counter-leak. If the last happens, the net result will be to fan the controversy with those who really want to know the truth finding themselves further frustrated in the bitterness engendered by both sides.

☆ ☆ ☆

To make the full exchange public will in all probability tell the enemy some things he did not know before and which he would like to know. But since the whole angry ruckus is written up large for the world to see, with the emphasis on America's divisions and dissensions, perhaps this would be a battle of passions and personalities.

Garden Glances With The Moon

By CECILE PARRISH SWINGLE

"Canst thou take the barren soil
And with all thy pains and toil
Make lilies blow?
Thou canst not! O helpless man,
Have faith in God. He can!

Canst thou paint the clouds at eve
And all the sunset colors weave
Into the sky?
Thou canst not! O powerless man,
Have faith in God. He can!

Canst thou still thy troubled heart
And make all care and doubt depart
From out thy soul?
Thou canst not! O faithless man,
Have faith in God. He can!"

—G. W. McClelland

IT'S second lunar quarter, you know. Today the moon is in the earthy and semi-barren sign, Virgo. Tomorrow morning at 11:08, it will enter the airy and fruitful sign, Libra, and Saturday afternoon near two, it will enter the watery and exceedingly fruitful sign, Scorpio. Late Saturday, at 3:30 actually, third lunar quarter will begin. Then Monday afternoon, at 20 minutes of two, the moon will enter the fiery and barren sign, Sagittarius.

Cecile Parrish Swingle

This is the month of Arbor Day and one thinks of trees, favorite trees, to plant or not to plant. Do tell your nurseryman your wants and get your order in now. And don't, I pray thee, choose Chinese elm, honey locust or hackberry, if you're a city dweller. Chinese elms have their place on the farm when planted for windbreaks to the north and west of buildings.

The foliage of honey locust is lacy and attractive when it does appear, but honey locust is late to leaf and drops its foliage very early in the fall. The tiny, tiny yellow flowers in June are pleasingly fragrant and the bees adore them, hence the name, but the huge green seed pods that form along in the summer and turn brown with frost and age are an annoyance. They fall on street and lawn alike—bushels of them—and it's a constant task to keep them raked from the grass and concrete. I should know, living out here on "Locust Lane," as we have for the past 11 years, where honey locust were once planted on each side of the street and many, far too many of them, still remain.

THE trees in our picture are the pin oaks, truly regal trees for city planting. White oak and red oak also do exceedingly well in our climate. Why not choose an oak? And don't let somone discourage you by saying, "They grow slowly." They really do not for I've proof of it, and what's your great hurry, anyway? There are birches to be had, the beautiful "cut-leaf birch" and the other ones. White pine is most desirable if an evergreen is to your liking. It grows rapidly and is a beautiful, beautiful tree to grace one's front lawn.

☆ ☆ ☆

IF it's a flowering tree you seek, do not overlook flowering crabapples. There are several newer varieties and you may have shell-pink blooms or deepest rose ones, depending upon the variety you select. Redbuds are native to southeastern Nebraska and surely we could use more of them in town and country alike. Have you ever motored along a roadside planting of redbud in the springtime?

MAGNOLIA Solangeana, whose large tulip-like flowers of purplish-rose outside and white inside come into bloom before the foliage appears, is very decorative and desirable. They do very well in Nebraska but can be planted only in springtime. So you should hurry if it's a Magnolia Solangeana you wish. They need protection from summer winds. This is easy to arrange by placing them east of one's house or garage or where a larger tree will give them protection. Alba Superba is the pure white variety; also V. Amabilis has white blooms and V. Rustica Rubra has large rose-red blooms.

Attention, Mrs. Adelina Schriner, Beaver Crossing! Here is the answer to your query regarding carrot maggot prevention. Use two grains of calomel (drug store), crush the tablets and dissolve in ¼ cup (two oz.) warm water. Soak packet of carrot seed overnight in this solution. Strain the seed through fine strainer or cheese cloth and let them dry before planting. They'll stick together if wet, you know.

So until next week—

APRIL, MONTH OF ARBOR DAY . . . a grove of pin oaks.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Hurrah for President Truman! At last he got up the courage to fire MacArthur! We don't care a thing about American capital investments in North Korea; neither do our American boys. We are for letting the investors protect their property themselves. An old army man told me that MacArthur was an absolute dictator in Manila before World war II and a missionary told me that MacArthur was an absolute dictator in Tokyo. No wonder he refused to take orders from anyone!

Now we can look forward to a peaceful settlement in Korea without involving the United States in a total war that could mean the end of our civilization. Communism is an idea and cannot be defeated by war. That is just what Hitler set out to do. He succeeded in spreading it and so will we while we dissipate our own strength and lose our democratic freedom.

Of course the war manufacturers and the Chinese lobby will put up a terrible howl; also the senators who were elected by great gifts of money from the armaments companies. Listen for them and analyze them. Let's start thinking again. The hysterical communist propaganda has caused us to do some fuzzy thinking. Let's pitch in and perfect our democracy and we will have nothing to fear from communism or fascism. The latter is much nearer than we think. We have been so busy watching the left that we have been unaware of the terrible menace creeping up on the right.

SUPPORT FOR THE TEAM

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: I don't suppose I am the only one to write in appreciation of Mr. Anderson's column, "The Firing Line." But I do read it every day and appreciate it. I am a loyal sports fan in Lincoln, especially to the Lincoln A's. I have kept a scrapbook on them for 1949, 1950, and am now ready for 1951. I think the sports writers have been both fair and just in their praise, criticism, and public support to Lincoln athletes, events and schools.

I think people expect too much of a team, even though it's a paid job on their part. No one can be good in every game. How would it be to have a daily or weekly check-up with the manager or business manager on this subject, not as an alibi for the team, but to keep the public spirit up? We also will probably have to contend with the draft and replacement problems this summer.

How about fixing up a fire-truck ride for the players or a parade to show our enthusiasm? The high-school bands could take part, too. As for me, win, lose, or draw, I am

Sounding Of Terms Disclosed

Asian-Arab Group Says Time At Hand For Red Concessions

BY PIERRE J. HUSS

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(INS)—Authoritative sources disclosed Tuesday that the 12-member Asian-Arab group at the United Nations has secretly sounded out Mao Tse-tung on his minimum terms to end the Korean war.

The same sources said that Indion Ambassador Sardar K. M. Panikkar, who was designated to carry out the mission in Peiping, was instructed to impress on Mao that the group believes the time has come for Communist China to "make appreciable concessions."

The development followed closely on the heels of a "peace offer" from the North Korean regime, although it was based on unacceptable communist terms.

Five Power Meeting

The North Korean communication to the U.N. proposed in effect a five-power conference on the Far East. Russia, Red China, the United States, Britain and France would join in the talks.

Panikkar was told to emphasize that the United States has gone a long way in making it possible for a peaceful settlement on terms considered both honorable and possible from the U.N.'s standpoint.

It is understood on good authority that on that basis Panikkar has been informed to tell Mao that President Truman's recent three-point minimum conditions for peace with Red China must be the guiding principle on the Western attitude.

Mr. Truman's conditions, enunciated in a speech last Wednesday, are a cease-fire, steps to bar another outbreak of fighting and measures to end communist aggression.

It has been made clear also by the president and by leading U.N. representatives—including Secretay-General Trygve Lie — that peace talks can be agreed to only on the absolute prerequisite of a free and unified Korea rid of foreign occupational domination.

The study, he said, will fit in well with the long range overall street and traffic plan submitted to the city by the St. Louis city planning firm of Harland Bartholomew and Associates.

Tilden Residents Have Unusually Big Day

Dedication Of Hospital Heads List

Two Fires Precede Ceremony; Damage In One At $20,000

(Special to The Star)

TILDEN, Neb.—It was a big day at Tilden Tuesday.

Before the day was very old fire racked the Cram implement building on main street. About noon firemen were again called out, this time to douse a grass fire. And in the afternoon over 1,000 people turned out to help dedicate the new hospital and hear Gov. Val Peterson speak.

The governor congratulated Tilden residents for the community co-operation required to build the hospital.

Local Project

He said they could be proud of the fact that they built it without federal or state aid. It was financed entirely by donations.

It is such community enterprises that weld communities together, he said, and help to fight communism.

Only about $5,000 remains to be paid on the new hospital, and most of that is expected to be paid by the time the hospital opens April 20.

$65,000 Hospital

The 25-bed hospital was built and equipped at a total cost of about $65,000. It will be managed by Mr. and Mrs. Max Heitmeier, who managed Tilden's 45-year-old frame building hospital, just sold for an apartment building.

The fire which roused Tilden about 2:30 a.m. did an estimated $20,000 damage. It virtually destroyed the two-story building owned by Eddie and Clyde Cram.

The owners theoried that the blae began with the automatic furnace. Firemen fought the flames—fed by frequent explosions of small oil barrels—for three hours before bringing them under control.

About noon a grass fire burned out a vacant lot next to Eddie Cram's home. It scorched a neighbor's garage but did no other damage.

Three Royal Places Are Burglarzied

. . . Loss Not Estimated

ROYAL, Neb.—(AP)—Safe crackers pulled three burglaries in Royal during the night, it was discovered Tuesday.

Most recent burglary to be discovered was at the Ray Puteney grocery store, where a cash register was forced.

Puteney said the safe crackers got all the cash he had. Earlier Tuesday it was discovered the postoffice vault was blown open and a safe at the Rundquist general store, about one half block away on the same side of the street, was entered.

There was no estimate of the loss and both buildings were closed pending arrival of the postal inspector from Norfolk and county officials from Neligh.

It was learned that the general store's safe was rifled, but there was no indication as to whether anything was taken from the postoffice vault.

$150,000 Loss Grafton Blaze

GRAFTON, Neb.—Damage has been estimated at $150,000 in this town's worst blaze which leveled the building and contents of Baumann Brothers, Inc.

In addition to the building, four cars, three trucks, 14 electric refrigerators, 10 stoves, many tires, hardware, home appliances and farm implements were also lost in the flames.

Firefighters from Grafton, Fairmont, Geneva and Sutton joined in the futile efforts to save the building. The Baumann family has been in business here for 29 years, expanding their appliance-implement business four years ago.

Sorensen Appointed To Radio News Post

OMAHA—(AP) — Thomas C. Sorensen, news director of station KLMS in Lincoln, has been appointed acting secretary of the Nebraska Association of Radio News Directors.

Oconto Couple Fill 'Life Prescription'

BY ROY CAMPBELL
(Star Staff Writer)

Mr. and Mrs. Orel Jones of Oconto filled out a prescription for marriage 47 years ago, and it worked so well they decided to make a business of it.

The prescription business had ramifications, though, because they've made a business of that, too.

In fact, just received by the Joneses was a pair of golden certificates from the Iowa Pharmaceutical association honoring them for 50 continuous years as druggists.

Active Life

The Orel Joneses could be the very ones everybody is trying to keep up with, because theirs has been an active and complete life, despite their respective 74 and 71 years-of-age.

They missed the conventions of the Nebraska Pharmaceutical association for the past four years, but they couldn't hold off from the 1951 meetings at the Cornhusker hotel in Lincoln.

Despite the sicknesses in the family, their 50th anniversary in pharmacy meant too much for them not to share the honor.

"You know," Mrs. Jones said, chuckling a bit to herself, "when you've been in the business this long, you're not a spring chicken."

Then Mr. Jones chimed in, "We've both been behind a counter since 1897. She was in Little Sioux, Ia., and I was in Madison, Neb.

They met in the pharmacy lab at Highland Park college of pharmacy in Des Moines, and both were graduated with the class of 1900.

"When we took our tests," Mr. Jones said, "we had to sit at opposite ends of the examination table. They knew better than to seat us together."

It took a while for the Joneses to mix together the right ingredients for what was to be a lifetime of filling prescriptions. Mrs. Jones took over her father's drug store and ran it four years before Orel decided it was time to combine marriage with their professions.

Tried Oconto

Six years after their marriage, in 1904, Mr. and Mrs. Jones decided to try their hand with the druggist business in Oconto, Neb.

Life evidently was good to the Joneses, because they stayed in Oconto, set up business in the Jones drug store for themselves, and have been there ever since. That was a mere 41 years ago.

Despite her 71 years, Mrs. Jones feels she is kind of slacking off on her work.

On Retired List

"I've been so lazy the last few years, you know," she said. "I look around and see a woman running this and that, and here I am—on the retired list."

But having a business partner who can take over in an emergency came in pretty handy a year ago, she said, when Mr. Jones was ill and there was no one else to handle the store.

Orel might be known as a "Jones of all trades" in the civic life of Oconto.

He recently was given a banquet in his honor and was presented with a gold medal for his 50 years of activity with the Modern Woodmen. The banquet, incidentally, took place on the anniversary of his 41st year in Oconto. He and Mrs. Jones arrived there Feb. 6, 1910.

Besides his other duties, Jones has been secretary of the Oconto fire department for "I don't know how many years." He always wanted to go out and fight the fires, too, he said, "but they'd never let me."

He believes he is the only living member of the original charter group of the Nebraska Pharmaceutical association, after it changed its name from The Druggists association. He was president of the state pharmacists in 1920, and served on the board of directors from 1913 to 1917. He was treasurer for seven years.

When are the Jonesses going to give somebody else a chance at the pharmacy business?

"Oh, we might retire some day," they chimed in together, "when we get a little older."

A LIFE PRESCRIPTION—Mr. and Mrs. Orel Jones of Oconto filled out a life prescription for business and marriage. Both received pharmaceutical licenses in 1900, were married in 1904, and now operate Jones drug store. They journeyed to Nebraska Pharmaceutical association at the Cornhusker hotel in Lincoln shortly after receiving golden certificates from Iowa pharmacists honoring their 50 years as druggists. Late Spring Delays Small Grain Seeding

Damage To Wheat Crop Increases

. . . Causes Vary

Winter wheat damage reports increased in Nebraska during the past week, the state-federal division of agricultural statistics revealed Tuesday.

From one of the highest December 1 condition reports of record, the crop lost seven points by April 1, the weekly crop-weather report disclosed. Further reduction in condition was noted from reports during the first two weeks of April.

The causes of damage reported varied greatly in different parts of the state, from winter drouth in the west to excessive moisture in the east, high winds, leaf rust, cutworms, green bug, alternate freeing and thawing, freeing after wheat had lost its winter hardiness, some planting of less winter resistant varieties and too heavy early growth which consumed all of the surface moisture. Reports also indicate damage to wheat in spots, thin stands and slow growth due to a cold, backward, spring season.

Stands Thinner

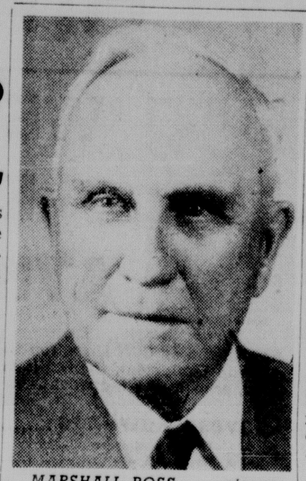

Limited field examination the last days of March revealed that the underground portion of the wheat was still alive, although some thinning of stands and some loss of acreage was apparent at that time, which was reflected in the reduced condition from December 1 to March 1.

Reports for the week indicate very little spring small grain sown. Sowing of oats and barley last week was limited largely to the western two-thirds of the state, where about one-third of the seeding is completed in the northern portion and about half in the southern portion. Practically no oats or barley have been seeded to date in northeastern Nebraska. Reports indicate a range from 11 per cent to 20 per cent of the oats seeded to date in east central and southeastern Nebraska.

Gibbon Man To Receive High Honor

As Contributor To Agriculture

Marshall Ross, pioneer farmer and livestockman from Gibbon, Neb., will be honored by the University of Nebraska Block and Bridle club in Lincoln on Friday, April 20.

The club each year honors a prominent contributor to Nebraska agriculture at a dinner following the traditional Feeders' day program at the college of agriculture.

A native of Indiana, Mr. Ross, now 78, moved with his parents to Buffalo county Nebraska in 1883. The family settled on the raw prairie at the edge of the bluffs overlooking the Platte valley.

Fine Sheep Flock

After years of hardship the pioneer built up one of Nebraska's finest flocks of sheep. One of his greatest contributions, according to University of Nebraska officials, is in the field of wool marketing.

In 1930 a delegation from the college of agriculture persuaded him to represent Nebraska at Kansas City in organizing a wool marketing co-operative. He was named president and manager of that concern which agricultural college officials say has advanced the sheep industry greatly. He headed the organization 15 years and more recently has been vice president and a member of the executive committee. He also has served on the national wool marketing committee.

He was named director of the American Hampshire Sheep association and headed the State Ram sale and Show organization.

Soil Supervisor

Mr. Ross has been active in other things which have boosted agriculture. He served as supervisor of the Buffalo county soil conservation district for six years. He was named Master Farmer by a Nebraska farm magazine in 1929.

Robert Raun of Minden is president of the Block and Bridle club which will honor Mr. Ross. A picture of the pioneer Nebraskan will be placed in the Hall of Fame in the university's animal husbandry building.

About 4,500 farmers and their wives are expected for the Feeders' Day program which will precede the dinner. The evening program will be held at the Y.M.C.A.

Dr. Smith Feted For Service To Albion 48 Years

ALBION, Neb. — (AP) — This northeast Nebraska community Tuesday night honored Dr. J. W. B. Smith, its physician and surgeon for 48 years.

An open house and reception at the Congregational church were held for the doctor—son of a doctor and father of two doctor sons.

Besides delivering approximately 3,000 babies into the world and tending to the ills of other patients in this community, Dr. Smith has found time to raise silver foxes, follow sports events, own an operate farms, hunt, and grow petunias.

His biggest thrill, he says, was winning two auto races at the Boone county fair in 1912. He says he had a "fat fellow" sitting beside him in the car to help balance the vehicle and enable him to take the curves at high speed.

Dr. Smith was graduated from the Omaha Medical school in 1903.

FRED CARTER

HASTINGS—Fred Carter, 74, who lived southwest of here, was found dead at his home Saturday. He was a lifelong resident of Adams county. Surviving are a brother-in-law, Arthur Ebert, Hastings, two nephews and a niece.

Wage Stabilization Board With Power To Settle Major Labor Controversies Given Okay, 12 To 4

Mobilizing Body Gives Approval To Setup

WASHINGTON— (INS) — President Truman's mobilization advisory board Tuesday overrode industry objections and recommended creation of a new 18-man wage stabilization board with power to settle major labor disputes.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short said the board approved this plan by a 12 to 4 vote, with the four industry representatives opposing after a day-long meeting at the White House.

Short would not say what action the president will take on the recommendation. It was assumed, however, that he will put it into effect.

New 18 Man Board

The proposal calls for establishment of a new 18-man tripartite wage board composed of six representatives each of management, labor and the public.

In addition to handling wage stabilization questions, the board would be empowered to assume jurisdiction over disputes where:

1. The contesting parties agreed to submit the dispute to the board. The agency would make decisions binding on the two parties in these cases, provided they so agree.

2. The president certified the dispute to the board on the ground that it substantially threatened the progress of national defense.

In all cases where the president submitted disputes or the contesting parties did not want to be bound by its decisions, the board would merely inquire into the issues involved and report its "recommendations" to the president.

Industry representatives have steadfastly opposed granting to any wage board authority to pass on such "non-economic" issues as the union shop and seniority rules. They have claimed that this would tend to subvert the Taft-Hartley labor act.

Industry Will Stay

However, industry spokesmen have made it plain they will not walk out on any wage board that may be set up, even though the conditions under which it operates does not accord with their views.

Labor already has made known its support of wage stabilization plans in line with the compromise proposal.

The existing nine-man wage stabilization board has been inactive since mid-February, when labor members walked out because industry and public members approved the 10 per cent wage increase ceiling.

Defense Mobilizer Wilson, chairman of President Truman's mobilization board, did not vote on the wage issue. The board will meet again at the White House, May 1.

MacArthur's Oahu Visit Triumphant

Leaves Hawaii After Gala Day

HONOLULU —(AP)— General MacArthur took off for the mainland at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday (1:30 p.m. CST), homeward bound to air before congress his Asian policy views, for which President Truman dismissed him.

MacArthur's Constellation transport was scheduled to reach San Francisco at 8 p.m. PST (10 p.m. EST).

MacArthur, in affable mood following the welcome parade here Monday afternoon, made his departure briskly and with a minimum of ceremony.

Takeoff was from Honolulu international airport, rather than from Hickam air force base, where MacArthur's party arrived early Monday.

Favors Statehood

Asked if he had any farewell remarks, MacArthur genially responded:

"When we meet again I hope Hawaii will be a full-blown state of our country. Aloha!"

One on the mainland, MacArthur is scheduled to receive ovations in San Francisco, Washington and New York.

The 34-hour stopover here gave the 71-year-old general a chance to renew acquaintances, receive an honorary degree from the University of Hawaii, and to feel the warmth of welcoming American crowds.

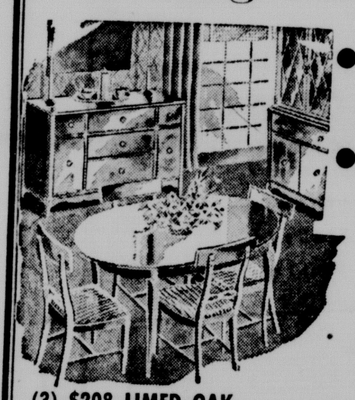

For 25 miles on his triumphant tour MacArthur passed through continuous crowds.

Bright Future Indicated For Antibiotics

State Pharmaceutical Convention Ends Here

A brighter future for victims of infections that respond to antibiotic treatment was predicted Tuesday at the closing session of the 68th annual Nebraska Pharmaceutical association in Lincoln.

Herbert R. Allee, pharmaceutical firm representative from Kansas City, Mo., told the association that "the industry confidently expects to find an antibiotic that will be more effective and less toxic than present forms."

Allee reported that about 1,000 antibiotics are being tested in laboratories and clinics but only a few are expected to be useful.

More Training.

Robert A. Hardt, Nutley, N. J. drug official, in outlining trends in the retail drug business, told more than 450 association members that "pharmacists must do more training of personnel.

"In the past," said Hardt, "it was enough to tell a new employe what to do.

"Now, as the dispensing of drugs becomes more personal and as stores come to sell a greater variety of items, the employe must be taught the 'why' and 'how' of their job."

Also included in the program were addresses on:

"Promoting the Rx Department" by John Clayton of Grand Island; "Preserving Animal Health" by Joe Swinarski of Greeley; and "Developing a Truss Business" by Ross Hawley of Red Cloud.

Discussions, moderated by the speakers, followed the addresses.

OPS Regulation.

Office of Price Stabilization regulations affecting drugssists were explained by Henry Winters and Mrs. Mary McAlister of the Omaha OPS office.

Forty-seven members attended the Wednesday morning "25 Year Plus" club greakfast.

At the morning session of the women's division of the association, 10 past-presidents were honored with flowers and gifts.

Honored were:

Mrs. Loran Jordan, David City, 1925; Mrs. Stanley Long, Grand Island, 1930; Mrs. Charles Sprague, Omaha, 1937; Mrs. F. H. Bridges, Lincoln, 1940; Mrs. R. S. Broyles, Lincoln, 1945-46; Mrs. Don Brooks, Hastings, 1942; Mrs. R. L. Buchanan, Randolph, 1948, Mrs. B. W. Barth, Lincoln, 1949; Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Chadron, 1950; and Mrs. Don Berndt, Minden, 1951.

The auxiliary adjourned at noon following committee reports, announcements and election of officers.

The convention ended with a president's banquet and an announcement of the 1951-52 officers.

Nebraska Boy Ranks 3rd In Legion Meet

RICHMOND, Va. — (INS) — Jeanne Dickinson, 16, of Roanoke, Va., made her first public speech Monday but she outtalked three boys to win the national American Legion oratory finals at Richmond.

Jeanne became the first girl ever to win the contest, which has been held for 14 years. She won a $4,000 scholarship for her talk on "Our Constitution—My Birthright," and broke out in tears afterward.

Second place went to Ronald Hengen, of Long Island, N. Y., the son of a German immigrant. He was awarded a $2,500 scholarship.

Francis O. McDermott, of Omaha, Neb., a descendant of Patrick Henry, won $1,000 for third prize.

Fourth place and $500 went to Ralph Petersburger, of Davenport, Ia., who is sports editor of his hometown paper.

Aid Program For Disaster Victims Set

A steeped-up program of mass care of evacuees in the event of natural or military disaster was emphasized Monday at an all-day meeting of Red Cross disaster preparedness committee chairmen from 14 southeast Nebraska chapters.

Vern Zimmerman, chairman of the Lincoln committee, said preparation of emergency facilities for disaster victims will take the form of canteens, clothing and sleeping facilities.

The nearly 50 persons meeting at St. Paul Methodist church also planned mutual aid between county units in warning and rescue work.

Practical experience in serving meals to disaster victims was gained by women Red Cross workers Monday evening. They served "canteen meals" to the conferees at a dinner in the church.

At the evening session, Edward Gillette, state civil defense director, outlined the functions of civil defense and its organization to better acquaint the workers with Red Cross responsibility to civil defense.

The Lincoln meeting was the first in a series of five such organization conferences throughout the state. Tuesday Gillette and Zimmerman will accompany a Red Cross group to Norfolk for an area meeting. Others will be held at Fremont, Kearney and McCook.

Far East In Long Term Of Revolution

"China, as well as the other countries in the Far East, today are in a long term state of revolution."

This is the opinion of Pastor Arne Sovik of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America board of missionaries.

Pastor Sovik, who spent four years from 1943 to 1947 in China as a missionary, spoke Monday to a Norden club meeting at the YWCA.

"It seems to me," he said, "that if the West is to help China we've got to move with rather than against this revolutionary movement.

"We must offer them a purpose in life and a solution to their problems. I believe that solution is Christianity.

"For this reason I believe the job of the rest of the world is not to bring China the ideals of the West, but to bring them the ideals of Christianity."

Pastor Sovik, who was born and reared in China, has taken graduate work at Yale University in church history in Far Eastern affairs. At the present time he is working with the Evangelical Lutheran church of America bringing education to students in the field of missions.

Governor Doesn't Know Of Being At Betting Event

Gov. Val Peterson Tuesday said he is not aware of attending any sports event when lucky number programs were sold.

Earl B. Wright, state adjutant of the Disabled American Veterans, had said the governor had attended such an event, in reply to the governor's demand that Wright retract a statement made at a legislative committee hearing.

Wright said at the hearing, "I've been in places where the governor saw gambling going on and he never called out the state troops to stop it."

Tuesday, Peterson said:

"As I suspetced he (Wright) was mistaken in his statement (before the committee)."

JAYNE'S P-W tablets KILL PIN-WORMS
(You may have them and not know it)

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms . . . ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

New Highway Department Structure Now Proposed

Manager, Commission Ideas Join

Bill Study Is Set Thursday

A combination commission-business manager plan for administration of the highway department will be ready for consideration by the public works committee Thursday, Chairman Otto Prohs of Gering said Tuesday night.

The plan is a combination of two bills now in the committee's hands—LB 2, creating a state highway commission, and LB 261, providing for a business manager.

Under the combination plan, the governor would appoint a five member highway commission—one member from each congressional district and one at large.

The commission would name a business manager, who could be paid up to $9,000 a year.

The business manager would appoint the state engineer and other employes, with commission approval.

"There is no separation of the highway and irrigation departments," Prohs pointed out.

The committee last week killed LB 3, which would have split the present department of roads and irrigation into two.

"We may want to offer the combination plan as a new bill, but probably it will come in as an amendment to one or the other of the bills already heard," Prohs added.

A highway renenue bill was voted out of revenue committee last week, and another is still in committee.

Senator Prohs' bill raising the gasoline tax from five cents a gallon to six cents was reported out. The revenue committee is still holding a ton-mile tax bill applying to trucks and buses.

Bill Against Black Market Is 'Hot' Issue

Two Bills Would Prohibit Removal Of Serial Numbers

Hearing on the so-called "anti-black market or gray market" operations bill scheduled for Wednesday afternoon appears to be building up as one of the "hot" issues of the session.

Two bills, LB 546 and 547, to halt removal of serial numbers on farm machinery and other household and industrial machinery were introduced by the agricultural committee at the request of Sen. Herbert Duis.

When request was asked of the legislature, Sen. C. E. Metzger spoke strongly in favor of them and told of black market operations in his county.

The statements by Sen. Metzger brought a reply from Maynard Tritsch of Plattsmouth that "there is no black market of independent dealers." He said most of the independents are farmers who "sell for less than regular dealers and with no strings attached."

Sen. Metzger pointed out that the part of the Tritsch statement, "no strings attached," was important.

No Guarantees

"That means that they carry no stock of repair parts and give no guarantees or protection of any kind to the buyer," Metzger said. He explained that the service given by franchised dealers accounted for higher prices.

"The farmers are not forced to do business with us," Tritsch said in his statement. "They do so voluntarily for their own benefit, as they are tired of being held up by the high prices that eastern manufacturers demand."

Tritsch denied that the independents remove identifying serial numbers. "The franchised dealer does that because if he did not and the machine were traced to him, the company could take away his franchise or the local dealer could collect the full 30 per cent commission."

Supports Bills

Senator Metzger agreed that it was the franchised dealer who probably removes the serial numbers. He said unscrupulous dealers get in the implement business the same as any other. His support of the bills he said was to stop this practice of franchised dealers.

Lobbyists for the independents were busy Tuesday seeking to have the measures killed and regular dealers from over the state were urging their senators by telegram and telephone to support the bills.

Senator Duis said Tuesday that he has amendments prepared that will protect farmers having sales of used machinery and will ask that purchases made before passage of the bill will be exempt.

Srb's Pay Is Increased $1,000

The legislature Tuesday raised the pay of its clerk, Hugo Srb, to $5,500. It was $4,500.

Several days ago, when a bill providing pay increases for several state administrative officers was debated, the legislature balked at giving Srb a $1,000 increase, but voted to give him $500.

The lawmakers granted a "unanimous consent" request Tuesday to bring the bill back and tack on the additional $500 for Srb without further debate.

Wedding Ceremony At Byron

At a double ring ceremony solemnized on Easter Sunday, March 25, at St. Peter Lutheran church in Byron, Miss Leora Kettelhut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kettelhut, became the bride of Verdell Freitag, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Freitag. The lines of the 6:30 o'clock service were read by the Rev. A. A. Krause before an altar arranged with Easter lilies and greenery, and lighted white candles. Tall yellow candles tied with bows of yellow net marked the processional aisle.

MRS. VERDELL FREITAG

The wedding music was played by Mrs. LaVerne Kniep, organist, who also accompanied Marvin Ritterling, cousin of the bride, who sang "Bless This House," and Mrs. Reuben Schleifer, cousin of the bride, who sang, "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer." Lighting the candles were Miss Jeanette Kettelhut and Miss Joanne Kettelhut, twin sisters of the bride, frocked alike in yellow ninon.

Miss Verla Kettelhut attended her sister as maid of honor and wore a colonial gown of pale yellow ninon designed with an off-shoulder yoke trimmed with lace, and full, lace-trimmed hoop skirt. She carried a bouquet of white and pastel blue carnations. Frocked identically in pale blue ninon were Mrs. Marvin Freitag, matron of honor, Miss Adalene Freitag and Miss Fern Freitag, sisters of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids. Their bouquets were fashioned of pink carnations and stephanotis. The flower girl, Miss Ruth Hoops, cousin of the bride, wore a gown of white satin and carried a basket of yellow roses and snapdragons, and Lee Dwayne Hoops, also a cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of traditional white satin. Lace outlined the off-shoulder collar of satin, and the fitted bodice was completed with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The lace motif was repeated in the front trim of the full satin skirt, which tapered into a lace-edged train, and a coronet of seed pearls held her illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis, and wore a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom.

Lavern Heitmann was best man, and seating the guests were Marvin Freitag, brother of the bridegroom, Willis Kettelhut, brother of the bride, Walter Poppe and Donald Poppe, causins of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling, Mrs. Freitag wore a navy wool suit and a corsage of yellow Dutch iris.

Mr. and Mrs. Freitag will reside on a farm near Byron.

Glenvil Junior Club

Looking forward to its second anniversary this coming summer is the Junior Woman's club of Glenvil, the first woman's club of its community. Organized in the summer of 1949 with the help of Mrs. J. W. Batt of Hastings, the club has grown (seventeen members) to become a successful influence in the area.

The first project of the group, and still its most popular, is the community library begun and sponsored by the club members who work to raise funds for its support. Especially popular with the children of the community, the library had as its first head Mrs. Laurence Terry who has been succeeded by Mrs. Harold Terry as head librarian.

Not content with assisting in the local Red Cross drive recently, the club members staged an Easter egg hunt in the village park for the children of Glenvil and the surrounding area on Good Friday. The most recent project, upon which the club is just beginning, is the sale of cook books to raise additional funds for the library.

THE MEN IN OUR LIVES

When Grandpa Was A Boy

We KNOW you haven't even a remote idea who today's Grandpa is—And you'd never guess in a thousand years—that is, unless you had some clues. The young man done up in his very best bib and tucker appears to be very naive, as no doubt he was—then. That was before he learned about the world and had to make certain decisions affecting the life and property of this individual and that—at the age of one year, or thereabouts, one's talents aren't as apparent as they might be—But, we can tell you that this particular gent has had a life of schedules—We wouldn't be at all surprised but what his favorite song is: "I've been working on the railroad—" He did, while in law school, and between his class schedules and his railroad schedules life was one big hop, skip and jump. But his sense of humor, as sturdy as ever, stood him in good hand, and though now he maintains a position of dignity, he never has lost the twinkle in his eye. We mentioned that his days of schedules had passed—That isn't quite true—He maintains his interest in them when his grandchildren are around—For instance—when his granddaughter, Mary Jane, and his grandson Hiram, jr., "Biff" for short—and his grandson Teddy (on the tricycle) are around he arranges schedules to suit the small-fry. By this time you've probably guessed that we've been talking about Judge Frederick W. Messmore of the Nebraska supreme court. Mary Jane and "Biff," are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Messmore of Lexington, Ky., and Teddy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Messmore of Lincoln — Incidentally a new granddaughter recently has been added—Susan Elizabeth—daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Messmore.

Good Morning

The Bride Book

By Mary Aitken Greer

Supplying food at a wedding is a necessary measure, because the wedding guests do not eat the whole week preceding the festivities, in preparing their tummies for the Bridal Feast. Thus the life span of mankind is prolonged from one wedding to the next.

But notwithstanding this vital fact, the Bridal Feast is spiritually necessary at any wedding. For the Bride and Groom must eat together on their wedding day as a symbol of their kinship. In fact, in Primitive times eating was the sole ritual of the marriage. Thus our most basic instinct has become a symbol as well as piggish desire.

In past times of Germany the bridal pair ate from the same plate. This custom is varied in Borneo where the Bride and Groom smoke the same cigarette. But this would be very bad in America due to the possibility of the cigarette advertisers completely taking over the wedding.

Eating is such a spiritual undertaking among the Hindus that the Bride is honored only at her wedding, by being permitted to share a meal with her husband. At all other times she eats only his left overs. So the way to her heart is through the left overs.

Thus we eat on, even into the wedding — and strangely enough this custom is continued in one form or another during married life.

The annual convention of the Nebraska Pharmaceutical association auxiliary, which has been meeting in Lincoln this week, closed their session with election of officers on Tuesday morning.

The new officers of the group, standing, from left to right, are Mrs. LeRoy Armstrong, Scottsbluff, first vice-president; Mrs. Fred Creutz, Wausa, second vice-president; Mrs. R. B. Judkins, Lincoln, third vice-president; Mrs. G. E. Allen, McCook, fourth vice-president; Mrs. W. A. Jarrett, Omaha, fifth vice-president; Mrs. Guy L. Thompson, West Point, treasurer.

Bible Department Honors Leaders

Following a luncheon at the Y.W.C.A. Tuesday, sixty members of the Bible department of the Lincoln Woman's club joined in a service honoring past leaders of the group.

As Mrs. Guy Drummet, re-elected leader of the department, called the roll of past leaders, pansy corsages were presented by Mrs. O. J. Bilhorne to Mrs. Maude DeVriendt, Mrs. E. W. Rowe, Mrs. M. Thompson, Mrs. R. H. Kirby, Mrs. H. R. James, Mrs. F. R. Hallock, Mrs. Guy Butler, Mrs. Etta Warner and Mrs. H. K. Moffitt.

Past leaders who were unable to be present are Mrs. H. C. Luckey, Miss Henrietta Bowers, Mrs. J. H. Loper, Mrs. T. R. Anderson and Mrs. Alta Byrnes. Deceased leaders are Mrs. William McKee, Mrs. G. H. Gooden and Mrs. E. C. McDade. The department was organized in 1924 during the administration of Mrs. W. W. Whitfield.

The prayer of St. Francis of Assisi was read by Mrs. Charles R. Kuhle. Mrs. Dean Jackson, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson Beam, sang "Bless This House." Mrs. Rasche Myers read "The Mansion," by Henry Van Dyke.

The officers, Mrs. Drummet, leader, and Mrs. C. R. Haines, secretary-treasurer, were installed by Mrs. J. F. Moell. Mrs. Earl B. Wagner, assistant leader, was unable to attend.

The tables, decorated with bouquets of pansies and lighted candles, were arranged by Mrs. O. J. Bilhorne, Mrs. Fred Cox, Mrs. Nellie Abbott and Mrs. Guy Seaton.

FISH OR FOWL—

It's Tasty

AS FAR AS THE SOCIAL whirl is concerned, the season is neither fish nor fowl—it's just one day after another filled with a little of this—and a little of that—Of course the weddings are festive affairs—and there are some extra-special ones coming up within the next week or two—And we heard that a certain wedding (the one that has a change of bridegrooms) is to be an event of a few weeks hence—

* * *

THE WORD "WEDDING" reminds us of one that was an event of the past week-end and some of its out-of-town guests—Mrs. R. C. L. Greer, for instance who came from Portsmouth, N. H., for the wedding of her son, Raymond Clifton L. Greer, jr., and Miss Mary Aitken—lingered for a few days to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor Greer. Mrs. Greer leaves today to return to Portsmouth, and en route will stop off in Clarinda, Ia., for a brief visit with her mother.

* * *

AND THAT BRINGS TO mind Mrs. Ralph Sabin who came from Washington, D. C., for the Aitken-Greer wedding—Mrs. Sabin went to Beatrice on Sunday to spend a day or two with relatives and friends—and will leave Wednesday to return to Washington.

* * *

JUST HEARL THAT Mrs. Harry Prouty returned home Sunday evening after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Livingston in Fairbury.

* * *

AND WE HAVE GUESTS—and more coming—Miss Lois Swable of Berkeley, Cal., as you know, arrived the past week-end to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Stuart—On Thursday evening Miss Cecile Effie of Kansas City will arrive to spend the week-end as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart—and on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Sallander and their daughter, Bonnie, come from Marshalltown, Ia., for the week-end. During their stay Mr. and Mrs. Sallander will be the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown, and Miss Bonnie Sallander will be the guest of Miss Peggy Ann Mathers.

* * *

THE REMAINDER OF THE week is generously dotted with courtesies for the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart—Today, when Mrs. M. G. Volz entertains her bridge club at luncheon at the University club, Miss Swable will be included in the group—

* * *

AND ON FRIDAY EVENING Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will entertain their guests at dinner at their home—But on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Stuart will be host and hostess at a dinner party at their home in honor of their current guests, and more who are expected from Chicago late Friday evening or Saturday morning.

* * *

ON SUNDAY MR. AND MRS. Arnott Folsom will be host and hostess at a brunch at the Lincoln Country club complimenting Miss Swable, Miss Effie, Mr. and Mrs. Sallander, and the guests from Chicago.

* * *

THE MONDAY NIGHT CLUB is having its April party on Saturday evening — a dinner dance at Hotel Cornhusker which will be in charge of a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Ayers, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rosewell, Mr. and Mrs. John Unthank, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Smith, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wescott and Mr. and Mrs. George X. Smith—Hear tell as how a television theme is to be featured in the decor.

* * *

SOMEONE TOLD US that Dr. and Mrs. Floyd L. Rogers were due home on Saturday after a several days absence—Dr. and Mrs. Rogers went first to St. Louis where Dr. Rogers attended a medical meeting—and branched out on their traveling from there.

* * *

LEARNED, TOO, THAT Mrs. Clayton Radcliffe of Sidney is the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stewart—Mrs. Radcliffe arrived last Friday, and will return to Sidney late this week.

* * *

THEN WE HEARD THAT Mrs. Russell Loerch (Janice Requartte) and her two sons, Billy and Bobby of Omaha, are spending the week as the guests of Mrs. Loerch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Requartte.

* * *

MONDAY NIGHT, so we hear, brought Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wythers home from a week's stay in New York City—While there Mr. Wythers was awarded a citation by the association of Famous Product Brands in the organization's "Salute to the American Merchant." Incidentally, at the same meeting R. D. Latsch was awarded a bronze plaque as the "Retailer of the Year," and also received a citation.

The awards, Lincoln men receiving two of the sixty-six presented in seventeen categories, were presented at a dinner at which Michael DiSalle and Senator James H. Duff were guest speakers.

Social Workers

The American association of Social Workers will meet at the Student Union for 6 o'clock dinner Wednesday evening. Following the dinner a film, "You Can Beat the A-Bomb," will be shown

Camp Fire Board Meets

The board of directors of the Lincoln Camp Fire Girls council met Tuesday afternoon for luncheon at the University Club after which Mrs. Edwin H. Hammond and Mrs. L. E. Liebers gave reports on the recent regional meeting of the organization held at Kansas City.

A report of the talk given at the conference by Martha Allen, director of the Camp Fire Girls of America, was discussed. Miss Allen spoke on the part to be played by the Camp Fire organization in the plans for national defense, and urged that the local groups co-operate mainly with their own communities in teaching the girls survival skills and lessons on self-reliance.

Clifford Hicks announced the appointment, at the conference, of Herbert Walt of Lincoln, as a new member of the regional executive committee.

Presiding at Tuesday directors meeting was Mrs. Clifford Jorgensen, president of the Lincoln Camp Fire council, who announced that the spring meeting of the board will take the form of an open house to be held at Camp Kiwanis at Milford, early in June, preceding the formal opening of the camp for the summer.

Music Department Installs Officers

Mrs. George Mechling presided at the installation of officers of the Lincoln Woman's club music department, held at the group's final meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. C. Klick was installed as leader for the coming year, Mrs. C. K. Bowman as the newly-elected assistant leader, and Mrs. L. Ralph Robertson as secretary-treasurer.

Miss Roberta Jones gave a musical resume of the department's past ten years. Mrs. Fred J. Stevens, director, led the group in an impromptu rendition of a chorus from the cantata presented this spring.

Mrs. Max Straub and Miss Phyllis Straub were hostesses for the meeting, which was held at their home.

We Hear That

Leaving on Monday for a three weeks' trip to Pittsfield, Mass., were Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Kelly who will visit their son, Gene. Before returning home, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will spend several days at Boston and New York City. Gene Kelly graduated last June from the University of Nebraska.

Toastmistress Club Meets

A program feature at the Monday evening meeting of the Lincoln Toastmistress club was a panel discussion on the subject "Should a Woman Marry for Love, Money or Security?

Miss Marjorie Watmore acted as moderator, and speakers were Mrs. Bertha Johnston, Miss LeAnna Shike and Mrs. Marie Metzger. Miss Lucile Garrison, president, presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Josephine Eyen reported on the Council Two speech contest and semi-annual meeting, held in Iowa Sunday. Mrs. Eyen also acted as timekeeper for the evening.

Mrs. Eunice Peterson, general evaluator, was assisted by Mrs. Margaret Foster, Mrs. Luella Hurley and Miss Adelheid C. Miller.

It was announced that May 7 has been chosen by the Lincoln club as mothers' night. Miss Garrison also announced that the regional speech contest will be held in Des Moines, Ia., on May 5 and 6.

Credit Women Entertain For 'Bosses'

The annual "bosses" dinner held by the Lincoln Credit Women's Breakfast club was an event of Monday evening at the Hotel Cornhusker. Mrs. Marie Long, club president, presided at the affair and introduced the guests and also Mrs. Nelle Hudkins, a member of the club, who was recently elected president of the sixth district of the organization.

Mrs. Myrtle Henline was in charge of the evening's program which included songs by the Keymasters male quartet and by Miss Vonna Finley, selections by Miss Dorothy Elliott, marimba soloist, and dances by students from the Hazel Johnson dance studio.

Parking Surface, Fencing, Clubhouse Among Sherman Field Improvements

NEW GRANDSTAND SCREEN—Covering the bottom strip of the grandstand is this new screen which no baseball can penetrate. Protection and comfort of the spectators has been a major concern of Pusey's in making these Sherman Field improvements. (Star Photo.)

NO MORE MUDDY PARKING SPACE—Shown above is part of the 30 tons of rock, 10 loads of cinders and 60 square yards of gravel that have been added to the Sherman Field parking lot. This will insure against getting stuck in the mud on rainy nights. (Star Photo.)

IMPROVED LOCKER ROOM—Note the white paint job, the new benches, the clothing racks and the general better condition of the A's dressing room. An attractive locker room, says Pusey, keeps the players in a better frame of mind. (Star Photo.)

A's Portocarrero Faces Omaha In Opener Tonight

First Sacker Hamilton's Injury Will Keep Him Out Two Weeks

. . . Opening Ceremonies At 7:45

BY NORRIS ANDERSON.

AMIDST all the pomp and ceremony of a seasonal opening, the Lincoln A's of 1951 will be unveiled for the paying public at Sherman Field tonight.

Manager George Kissell's powerful Omaha Cardinals, defending Western league champions, will meet Frank Skaff's hustling young A's at 8:15 in the first baptism for both teams.

The ceremonies commerce at 7:45.

Skaff Tuesday night named Arnie "Cochise" Portocarrero, strapping 19-year old righthander, as his starting pitcher.

Portocarrero, a handsome New York youngster of Spanish descent, had a 9-11 record with West Palm Beach last year in the Class B Florida State league.

If Portocarrero fails, Skaff will count on either Mason Bowes or Jim MacFaden for relief.

FORD STARTS.

Kissell told The Lincoln Star that his mound choice would be Lonnie Ford, who was with the Cardinals in 1950.

Ford and George Eyrich are the only two returning Omaha hurlers.

Other returnees from the 1950 chaps are Outfielder Jim Hercinger, Third Baseman Bob Rausch and Catcher Nick Adzick. The hitting of Rausch and Adzick has always been troublesome to the A's.

Lincoln strength was dealt a body blow with announcement that slick-fielding Tom Hamilton, leading hitter last year, will be out "another 10 or 15 days."

Hamilton fractured a shoulder bone a month ago. The fracture is now healed, but physicians ruled he should rest the healed bone for a spell before returning to the diamond.

MAGLIOLA FILLS.

His place in the lineup will be taken by Outfielder John Magliola, who will, in turn, be replaced by John Wesneski.

Magliola, fleet of foot, hit .364 for Youngstown in the Class C Mid-State league last summer. Wesneski swatted .306 for the same team.

Besides Hamilton, who is recovering at his Texas home, the only Lincoln player not in camp is Pitcher Tex Hoyle. Called home by the illness of his father, Hoyle will join the club Sunday.

Skaff announced his starting lineup, in batting order, thus: Magliola, 1b; Eddie Boehm, cf; Bobby Gardner, 2b; Tom Kirk, rf; Charley Wilhelm, ss; Bill Johnson, 3b; Wisneski, lf; Billy Shantz, c, and Portocarrero, p.

The A's concentrated Tuesday on a morning workout, followed by an evening drill for the public.

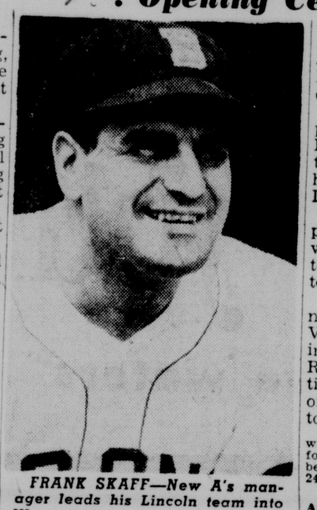

The schedule Wednesday included an appearance by Skaff, Business Manager Carl Pusey and the squad as guests of a noon Public Affairs banquet at the chamber of commerce.

This was to be followed by a parade at 4 p.m., sparked by the Lincoln Civic Baseball Association and including the Lincoln high, Northeast and American Legion bands.

Starting at 15th and N, the parade will wing north to O, west on O to 11th, south on 11th to N, east on N to 13th and then to the Cornhusker hotel.

Dignitaries at the opening night ceremonies include Mayor Vic Anderson, who will throw in the first ball; Commissioner Russ Brehm, and a representative from Gov. Val Peterson's office. The governor is out of town.

Following the three-game series here with Omaha, the A's take to the road for a three-tilt stint against Sioux City before returning to Sherman Field, April 24, for a series with Des Moines.

FRANK SKAFF—New A's manager leads his Lincoln team into Western league opener against Omaha tonight.

NELLIE TIES MARK

Nellie Fox, graduate of the 1948 Lincoln A's and presently with the [illegible] team, started the season off with a bang Tuesday in [illegible] opener with the St. Louis Browns as he tied a major league record.

Fox collected a pair of two base hits in a single inning—the eighth to tie the record. He led off with a double to open the inning and doubled his next time up in the same inning.

'Bluffs Host 32nd Western Cinder Meet

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb.—(AP)—A half dozen records will be under fire when the Scottsbluff track team plays host to panhandle cindermen Friday at the 32nd Western Nebraska track and field meet.

Records in nine of the 17 events are more than 10 years old. Oldest are the mile run, set by Louis Chavez of Bayard in 1933, and the shot put by Jim Canning of Scottsbluff the same year. Time on the mile was 4:39.7.

See You At Sherman Field

ALL is in readiness for the start of the Western league season tonight at Sherman Field.

Manager Frank Skaff's hustling young band of Athletics face Omaha, their traditional enemy, in this opening baptism.

Omaha has won two of three of these inaugurals and, according to all reports, has another top-caliber entry.

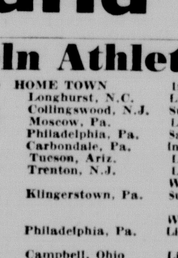

We think you fans are going to like this current Lincoln team.

It'll remind you of Bill Glassford's youthful contingent of Husker gridders.

You will find this squad a mixture of youthful zest, all-out determination and improved over 1950 in almost all departments.

There is nary a tinge of negative thinking about this squad. These kids think they can win.

From appearances in spring training, this squad reminds us of the Nellie Fox-sparked crew of 1948. The fire and determination is there.

Nellie Fox

Wherever they finish, there is one thing we will guarantee about Skipper Skaff and his fledgings. They're going to give it a powerful try.

See you at Sherman Field tonight.

AMONG other things among the Philadelphia Athletics' farm clubs such as Lincoln is tremendous incentive to get to the big leagues.

Watching Savannah of the Class A Sally league defeat parent Philadelphia, 5-4, at Savannah, we noticed several things.

The poppa A's need young blood. In this squad of fading athletes in their thirties there is a tremendous chance for young farm lads in the system.

Watching Philadelphia gave us the idea that there will be five or six openings in this squad a year hence.

And those spots will probably be filled by lads up from the A's two Class A chattels, Lincoln and Savannah.

So, you see, the incentive is there.

RASH to you it may seem, we're taking bets against the field on the Boston Red Sox in the American league chase.

This comes after watching the Bosox unleash their awsome plate power down in the sunny south.

So packed with punch is the Boston batting order that Billy Goodman, American league batting champ (.354) in 1950, was seventh in the batting order in the game we watched.

And you should see the defensive genius of Shortstop Lou Boudreau and Second Baseman Bobby Doerr! You have to rub your eyes.

Boudreau, a hustle and holler guy, seemed like sort of an unofficial field leader. He gave the umpires the batting order and, in general, seemed like Manager Steve O'Neill's righthand man.

Action Heavy On Huskers' Sport Front

Action was heavy Tuesday on the University of Nebraska sports front.

Coach Bill Glassford sent his Cornhusker gridders through a long drill on fundamentals. Blocking and tackling were particularly stressed.

Glassford indicated that Wednesday would be the last day of spring football drills.

In preparation for the Missouri-Nebraska duel Saturday, the Husker tracksters were busy on the outdoor track.

Following the Mizzou meet, part of the squad will participate in the Kansas Relays at Lawrence Saturday.

Pole Vaulter Don Cooper, in tuning up for the two meets, again cleared 14 feet Tuesday.

Eight-Run Rally In Last Three Innings Wins, 12-8

(Special to The Star)

WICHITA, Kas. — Nebraska university rallied for eight runs in the final three innings to win its second baseball test in as many days from the Wichita University Shockers, 12-8, here Tuesday.

Gusty winds evidently hampered the players but the play was better than the opener, which Nebraska won, 19-7.

Sophomore Dale Bunsen came on for Nebraska in the fourth to squelch a Shocker rally and pitched the rest of the way in shut-out fashion to get credit for the victory, first in his career at Nebraska.

JENSEN TEES OFF

Catcher Bill Jensen, of Topeka, Kas., got the big blow of the day—a home run in the fifth inning with one aboard to start the four-run Nebraska rally which tied the game up at 8-8. The big blow came off the offerings of Rex McMurray, first of two Shocker pitchers. John Friedersdorf came one finally to put out the fire.

Nebraska won the game in the sixth when Bill Fitzgerald led off with a single and went all the way to third when the ball got through Bill Tibbetts, Wichita center fielder. After Friedersdorf got the next two men he scored on a passed ball.

Overhauling THE NEWS

BY WALLY DeBROWN

About this time of year we notice various reports of women who are willing to marry . . .

if the groom turns up with a large enough check. Apparently love is as unimportant as parsley on the blue plate lunch. A while back a fellow in Temperance, Mich., even announced he was looking for a spouse for his mother-in-law. No price was quoted, so it may be the lady will accept the best offer. This emphasis on cupidity over Cupid must come as a surprise to anyone who believes that marriage involves something more than balancing a budget. Wedding bells don't sound the same on a cash register.

In Austria the Austrian Dove Breeders' Association broke up in a riot and the police had to be called. Seems like even the bird of peace is having problems these days. Your car problems are our meat. 1950 Pennant Winners Come Through In Openers

Robin Roberts Hurls Phils Past Brooklyn's Bums At Ebbets, 5-2

RESULTS TUESDAY
NATIONAL LEAGUE
Philadelphia 5, Brooklyn 2.
New York 4, Boston 0.
Chicago 8, Cincinnati 3.
Pittsburgh 5, St. Louis 4.

BROOKLYN —(AP)— Robin Roberts returned to his field of triumph Tuesday, pitching the Defending Champion Philadelphia Phils to a 5-2 victory over Brooklyn to dampen the Dodgers' home inaugural before 19,217 disappointed and winter-frocked Ebbets Field fans.

The rosy-cheeked righthanded ace, who whipped the Brooks in the season's finale last season to bring the first league championship to Philadelphia in 35 years, picked up where he left off last October, spacing nine hits in a route-going effort. It was Roberts, too, who vanquished the Dodgers in the 1950 opener, his first of four triumphs over his Brooklyn "cousins."

Roberts got the necessary hitting support from Del Ennis, Mike Goliat and Dick Sisler, the same trio that proved so troublesome to the Dodgers last year.

ENNIS HOMERS

Ennis drove in three runs, two of them with a homer in the sixth. Goliat hit a homer with the bases empty in the second to gain the honor of hitting the first major league four-bagger of the year. Sisler connected for two singles.

The Dodgers couldn't do anything with Roberts until the sixth when Jackie Robinson clubbed him for a two-run homer.

GIANTS 4, BRAVES 0

BOSTON—(AP)—Larry Jansen fashioned a frigid, sparkling five-hitter to send the New York Giants away winging with a National league opening day victory over the Boston Braves, 4 to 0.

This was the first time the Giants won an opener since 1936, and it was Jansen's first victory in four opening-day attempts. A blustery wind and 50 degree temperature held the crowd to only 6,081 paid.

Bobby Thomson knocked in two of the Giant runs with a single and a long fly and West Westrum and Don Mueller took care of the other two with singles. Neither side made an extra base hit.

Jansen had trouble in the ninth when Bob Elliott and Sid Gordon singled to start off. He then struck out Ebba St. Claire, and made Bob Addis ground out. The game ended when Walker Cooper, pinch-hitting for Johnny Logan, hit a long fly to center.

The Giants fielded the same team that made such a spectacular finish last year and is picked by many experts to win the pennant.

CUBS 8, REDS 3

CHICAGO (AP)—First Sacker Dee Fondy belted a bases-loaded triple in his first major league time at bat to launch the Chicago Cubs to an 8-3 win over the loosely-playing Cincinnati Reds before a Wrigley field opening day crowd of 18,211.

The game was played in suny, but chilling weather.

Only three Chicago runs were earned as the Reds committed five errors behind four pitchers, including Starter Ken Raffensberger, 1950 nemesis of the Cubs.

Fondy, rookie up from Fort Worth, and Veteran Centerfielder Andy Pafko slammed six hits between them for a total of 13 bases. Pafko clouted a homer, triple and single. Fondy also collected two singles, driving across four runs in all.

That was all right-hander Frank Hiller needed as he went the route for the Cubs, scattering 12 Redleg hits. Reffensberger who had won his last six starts against the Cubs last year, yielded for a pinch-hitter after three rocky innings in which he was touched for six runs and six hits.

BUCS 5, CARDS 4

PITTSBURGH—(AP) —Southpaw Bill Werle put out the fire again as the Pittsburgh Pirates took the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4 before 25,894 chilled fans at Forbes field.

Little Murry Dickson, who started for the Pirates, helped his own cause in the fourth inning with his first major league home run.

Wally Westlake won the game for the Bucs in the sixth inning with a round tripper deep into left field.

The Cardinals scored three runs in the first inning although they failed to hit the ball out of the infield. Buc Shortstop George Strickland helped the Cardinal cause with two errors.

The Pirates evened the count in the lower half of the third inning on consecutive singles by Dickson, Bob Dillinger, George Metkovich, Gus Bell and a long fly ball by Westlake.

Rookie Righthander Tom Poholsky started on the mound for the Cards. He was lifted for a pinch hitter in the top half of the seventh.

Red Sox Tumble, 5-0; Jensen Steals Show

RESULTS TUESDAY
AMERICAN LEAGUE
New York 5, Boston 0.
Cleveland 2, Detroit 1.
Chicago 17, St. Louis 3.
Washington 6, Philadelphia 1.

NEW YORK — (AP) — Yankee Vic Raschi turned Boston's April pennant winners into "the same old Red Sox" Tuesday with a flashy six-hit, shutout 5-0 victory for New York's defending world champs.

While 44,860 fans watched, the talented Yankee righthander rode home behind a seven-hit attack that routed Willie Wight in the sixth inning.

Jackie Jensen, the California football star whom manager Casey Stengel wanted to convert into a pitcher, stole the show from Mickey Mantle, the publicized rookie flash.

Jensen, playing left field in place of limping Hank Bauer, smashed a two-run homer in the third for the first scores of the game. His double to right field in the sixth started Wight on the way to the showers.

ONE FOR FOUR

Mantle, the 19-year-old kid from the Joplin, Mo., class C farm, contributed a left field single in the sixth inning rout of Wight, the ex-Yankee acquired from Chicago in a major December trade. It was Mickey's only hit in four trips in his big league debut.

INDIANS 2, TIGERS 1

DETROIT — (AP) — Genial Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians, the American league's winningest pitcher last season, pushed the Detroit Tigers right into the deep freeze with a nifty two-hit performance that thrilled 43,470 shivering opening day fans and flattened the Tigers 2-1.

The clubs, battling in a chilly 37 degrees, stayed on even terms until the ninth when, with the score tied at 1-all, Detroit Shortstop Johnny Lipon bobbled an easy grounder to allow Cleveland's Larry Doby to score from third.

Doby's scoring double against the rightfield wall, the eighth and last hit off Southpaw Harold Newhouser, opened the ninth. The fleet centerfielder moved to third on Bob Kennedy's sacrifice and scored while Lipon picked up and twice dropped Jim Hegan's easy grounder.

Second Baseman Jerry Priddy nicked Lemon for the only two Tiger hits, a double in the third and a single in the fifth. Lemon won 23 and lost 11 last year.

CHISOX 17, BROWNS 3.

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Chicago's revamped White Sox pounded five pitchers for 19 hits and ran roughshod over the St. Louis Browns for a 17-3 victory before a slim turnout of 5,660 in the opening day game at Sportsman's Park. The Browns pitchers yielded 14 bases on balls.

Lefthander Billy Pierce went the full distance and kept ten Brownie hits well scattered as the White Sox continued the mastery demonstrated by nine straight exhibition triumps over the Browns this spring.

FOX TIES RECORD.

Nelson Fox, Chicago second baseman, tied a mayor league record by hitting two doubles in a single inning. He led off the eighth with a two-base hit and when his turn came around again in the seven-run inning, he delivered another.

Senators 6, Athletics 1

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Catcher Mickey Grasso blasted a three run homer and Cuban pitcher Conrado Marrero tossed a neat seven hitter to give the Washington Senators a 6 to 1 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics in the first night opener in American league history.

Rough Mike, Ron Etcheson No Match For Garibaldi Duo

By GEORGE PAYNICH
(Star Sports Staff Member)

A pair of the west coast's finest television performers—a couple of guys named Garibaldi, put on another fine performance at the fair grounds Tuesday night, in defeating meanies Mike DiBiase and Ronnie Etcheson in two out of three falls.

The Garibaldi team, composed of little Leo and Uncle Mike, threw everything in the book at their opponents, including referee Tom Novak, to thwart the rough-house tactics of the local pair.

First fall went to the Californians at 17:05 as the more experienced Ralph Garibaldi put a quick damper on Iron Mike DiBiase.

It took the DiBiase-Etcheson pair about the same length of time to register something on the credit side of their score card. Etcheson did most of the damage inside the ring, while Mike lent a hand with his illegal tactics from the outside.

TV NEEDED

The final period of the wild and wooly contest was too much to report — too bad television wasn't present Tuesday night, the much-publicized Garibaldi pair were terrific here. It all ended at 56:35 as Ralph pinned DiBiase after throwing the latter all over the place.

In the slow semi-final ex-footballer Bob Orton scored a victory over Bob Geigel on the only foul of the event at 31:10.

Next week it will be Mildred Burke, one of the more highly salaried members of the fairer sex, and current champion, against an opponent to be named later this week. Promoter Adam Krieger hopes this red-haired wildcat will bring the fans out in force.

Bob Seldon, Lincoln Vaulter, Breaks Ankle As Links Win

. . . DROP NORTH IN DUAL, 73-45

OMAHA, Neb. —(AP)—Lincoln broke Omaha North's track victory string at four straight Tuesday with a 73-45 win at the Benson field, but the win was a costly one for the Links.

Bob Seldon, ace Red and Black vaulter, was lost for the season after he suffered a broken ankle in his pet event.

At Methodist hospital, attendants said Seldon's ankle is in a cast and he probably will be able to return home today.

WON EVENT

Seldon had cleared 12 feet 1 inch and was trying for 12-4 when the accident occurred. The fracture came when Seldon dropped into the pit.

The 12-1 mark was good enough to win the event for the Lincoln vaulter, however.

The teams were close on the track events, but Lincoln ran away in the field. Jerry Tannahill's victory of 21 feet 9 inches in the broad jump was the only win salvaged by the Vikings in the field events.

Brien Hendrickson won both of his specialties, the 440-yard dash and 220. He clipped off a :54.9 quarter-mile win and a :22.5 in the furlong.

Hendrickson also ran the anchor leg of the winning mile relay team.

STEP BEHIND

But he had opposition from Wayne Larsen in both the 440 and the relay. Larsen was scarcely a step behind in the open 440 run. In the relay, Larsen was 20 yards behind when he got the baton and again finished only a step in the rear.

Summary:

Track Events

100-yard dash—Won by Don Winters, North; second, Vern Goldsberry, North; third, Dave Manske, Lincoln Central. Time, :11.2.

Bluebirds Lace Foe

... In 16-2 Romp

The Cathedral Bluebirds shelled two Sprague-Martell pitchers for 16 hits and captalized on 13 errors by the opposition to grab a onesided 16-2 decision Tuesday afternoon at the Sprague field.

Windy, dusty playing conditions coupled with the obvious outcome of the contest prompted the coaches of both schools to end the slaughter after six innings.

Coach Father Kalin's chargers countered in every inning but the fifth as they piled it on the hapless hosts. The Bluebirds as a team, batted an even .500 against opposing chuckers, with 16 bingos in 32 trips to the plate.

Cathedral, winner in their first two outings, will square off with Syracuse Friday on the Syracuse diamond.

Doane Bests Missourians In Dual Meet

CRETE, Neb. — Doane college put on a strong finish to win a dual track meet with Northwestern Missouri State of Maryville here Tuesday. The final point total was 91½ to 44½.

A strong wind swept the track from the south giving some trouble to the distance runners and pole vaulters. The dashes were run with the wind.

Maryville's Mickey Anderson won applause as he took first in both the mile and two mile. At the half-way point in the latter he was clocked at 5:03—less than 15 seconds under his winning time in the mile.

Eggen, Chapman Star

Bengals Gib Ebben of Norfolk and Joe Chapman of Wymore were double winners for the hosts. Eggen's :52.9 effort was good for first in the quarter mile and his :23.2 won the 220. He also ran the anchor leg of Doane's winning mile relay quartet.

Chapman came home first in the 220-yard lows with a :25.5 performance and took top honors in the broad jump with a distance of 21 feet 4 inches. He carried the baton on the third lap in the winning 880-yard relay also.

Doane gained much of its lead by sweeping three events—the century, the 880-yard run, and the 220-yard dash. Maryville took all three places in the 120-yard highs.

County Mail Route Grading Continues

The grading of 60 more miles of mail route roads in Lancaster county this summer will leave but 91 more miles to go.

This was the word of County Engineer L. W. Weaver Tuesday. Weaver stated all of the county's 860 miles of mail route roads thus will be all-weather surfaced by the summer of 1953.

The county awarded contracts for three grading projects covering 35 miles. Two more projects totaling 25 miles are also planned this summer.

In addition, 44 miles of mail route roads graded last year will be graveled this summer.

183 Miles Graded

Since the mail route program was begun in 1947, 183 miles of roads have been graded in this county. Although the bill was passed in 1947, work was not actually begun until early 1948.

After all mail route roads have been graveled, the money will be used each year to maintain them, Weaver said.

Funds for the mail route roads come from the one-cent-per-gallon gas tax each county in the state receives. Lancaster county receives about $200,000 a year for this fund.

Lancaster county has 860 miles of mail route roads, which are divided into 32 routes. Seventy-seven per cent are now surfaced.

Work Toward Middle

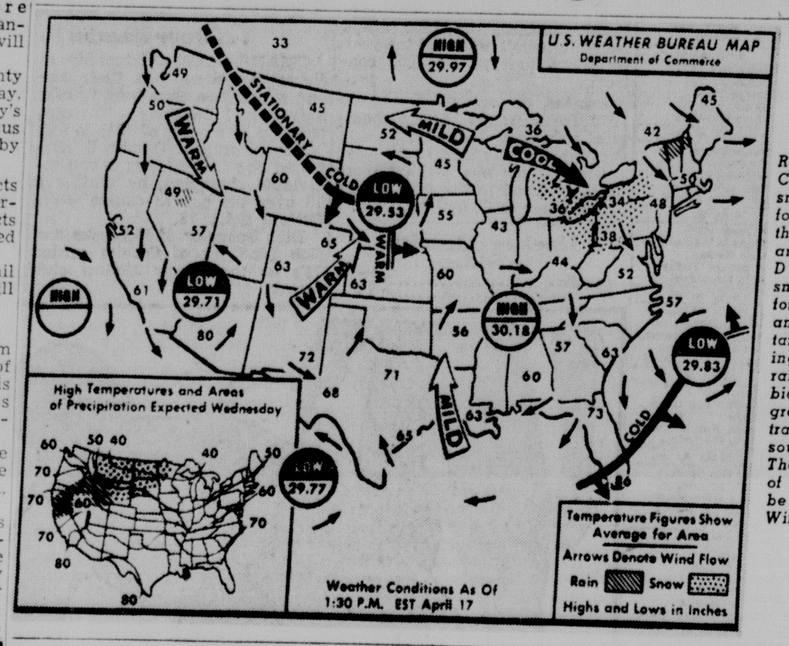

Under provisions of the bill, the first and last miles of each route are taken first. Thus, the grading and graveling works toward the middle of the route.

It costs about $1,200 a mile for graveling, and $1,300 for grading.

Weaver pointed out that Lancaster county has more miles of all-weather roads than any other county in the state.

He recently received a letter from the Lancaster County Rural Letter Carriers association commending him and his staff for the "excellent progress made since the rural route improvement bill was enacted."

Weaver estimated the county spends about $600,000 to $700,000 per year on all its roads. Re-

Central Gas Holdings In 9 S.D.Towns Sold For $850,000

Central Electric and Gas company, Twelfth and N, has sold its electric-supply holdings in nine South Dakota towns, it was reported to The Star Wednesday by Everett E. Baxter, general superintendent.

Baxter said holdings in the towns were sold to the West-Central Electric Co-Operative for $850,000.

The towns are: Kadoka, Filbert, Myrtle, White River, Belvidere, Presho, Kenebec, Reliance and Oacoma. All are in western South Dakota.

The transactions involved all transmission lines to the towns, small power plants at Filbert and Myrtle and the distribution systems in the towns.

West-Central Electric Co-Operative is active in developing REA in five South Dakota counties.

mainder of the funds comes from a 70 per cent share of the $5 registration fee each motorist pays, and a division of one-and-one-half-cent-per-gallon tax between municipalities and counties.

Action Expected On Resignation Of Mrs. Morrison

Resignation of Mrs. Maxine Morrison, McCook, who quit the democratic party's executive committee with a blast at the leadership, will be discussed at an executive committee meeting in Omaha Saturday May 5.

The meeting, which precedes the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner, is expected to result in the selection of a replacement.

The meeting was announced by William H. Meier of Minden, chairman of the democratic state committee. It will be held at the Fontenelle hotel at 10 a. m.

Meier also announced opening of an office at the Fontenelle to handle the Omaha end of Jefferson-Jackson day plans. Meier is chairman of the committee for the dinner.

Plan Public Hearings On Assistance

Legislative Committee Schedules First One April 28 In Lincoln

Public hearings will be held by the legislative committee investigating he state assistance department, Sen. W. J. Williams, chairman, said Tuesday. The first will be held in Lincoln, Saturday, April 28.

Sen. Williams said letters have gone out to the county boards of about 22 southeastern counties inviting them to attend and bring the county attorney, assistance boards and others interested. The Lincoln meeting will be the first of a series to be held over the state.

The Ravenna senator said that the public will be given every opportunity to tell the committee how the state laws can be strengthened and cost of the program reduced without causing hardship on the deserving needy of the state.

He said the committee has completed conferences with the staff of the assistance department, board of control and the advisory committee of county commissioners.

Williams expressed doubt that all of the information needed for a complete investigation can be assembled during the present session and that a continuing legislative council committee may be needed.

Pay Raise Amendment To Be on '52 Ballot

It will be up to the people of the state to decide whether they want to increase the salary of legislators. By a vote of 27 to 12 Tuesday the legislature passed a bill to place a constitutional amendment for such purpose on the ballot in 1952.

Proposed is an increase from the present $872 a year to $1,250 a year.

At the last election the people defeated a proposed amendment that would have let the senators set their own salaries.

The constitutional amendment bill was introduced by Sen. Glenn Cramer of Albion.

When the members first flashed their votes on the board, three more "ayes" were needed to give the required 26. But Senators Klaver, John Adams and Tvrdik of Omaha and Nelson of O'Neill added their votes to make it 27.

Other bills passed included a pay raise for workmen's compensation court judges from $4,000 to $4,800 a year and a bill permitting leasing of county hospitals.

Yank Heads Ethiopian Bank

ADDIS ABABA—(AP)—For the second time since Ethiopia established her new currency in 1945, an American's name is appearing on all paper notes circulating in the country.

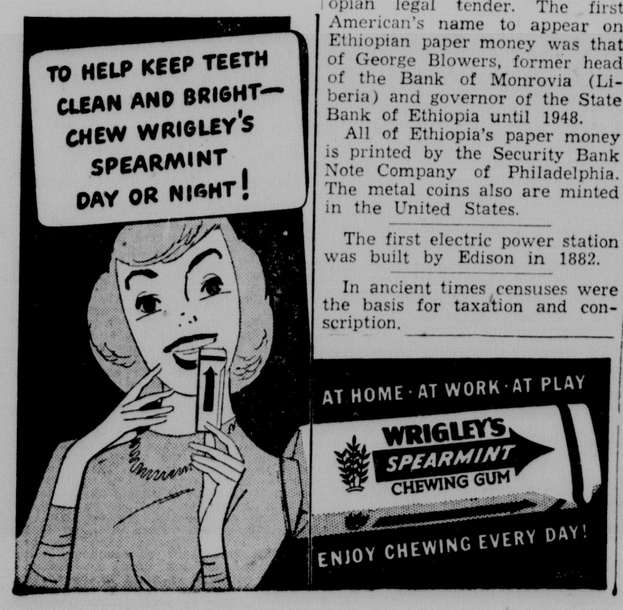

The name is that of Jack Bennett, (Washington D. C.) former U. S. Treasury official and later financial adviser on the staff of Gen. Lucius D. Clay in the American zone of Germany.

Crisp new paper bills just put into circulation now bear his signature. Bennett is Governor of the State bank of Ethiopia. This is the bank of issue of all Ethiopian legal tender. The first American's name to appear on Ethiopian paper money was that of George Blowers, former head of the Bank of Monrovia (Liberia) and governor of the State Bank of Ethiopia until 1948.

All of Ethiopia's paper money is printed by the Security Bank Note Company of Philadelphia. The metal coins also are minted in the United States.

The first electric power station was built by Edison in 1882.

In ancient times censuses were the basis for taxation and conscription.

Grains Rally, Close Lower

CHICAGO—(AP)—Grains ended lower on the board of trade Tuesday after an early attempt to rally the market behind wheat fizzled.

All contracts closed down except May wheat, which stood out conspicuously from the rest of the market. After selling at the previous close at one time, it came ahead in the closing hour to finish with a large fractional gain.

Wheat ended 1⅝c lower to ⅞c higher, corn ⅞c to 1⅝c lower, oats 1⅝c to 2⅛c lower, rye (old style) ½c to 1½c lower, soybeans unchanged to 2c lower and lard 7c to 30c a hundred pounds lower.

Selling in oats, verea south.'

Oats must be seeded early, grain men said, in order to reach maturity before the hot weather of late June or early July sets in. Oats which have not matured can be damaged severely by hot weather. Rather than take that chance, some farmers will switch to corn or soybeans, traders reasoned.

Oats also fell in the cash market, selling around cents under Monday's prices. Corn did not show much change. Buyers were bidding the May price for No. 2 yellow corn This eliminated the 1 cent drop of Monday when the bid was 1 cent under the May futures price.

Stocks Mixed, Volume Down

NEW YORK—(AP)—The stock market backed and filled all during Tuesday's session and wound up just about where it started.

Prices were mixed at the opening and when the market closed the margin of gains over losses was insignificant.

Price changes were fractional for the most part as issues sashayed all over the lot, now advancing a little, now slipping a bit.

There was a wave of improvement during the closing minutes but it resulted in no clear cut picture.

The statistics told the story graphically. Advances numbered 424, declines 414 out of a total of 1,115 issues traded. There were 35 new highs and 34 new lows.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was unchanged from Monday at $95.70. The average of the 30 industrials was unchanged but the rail and utility categories advanced 10 cents each.

The volume was 1,440,000 shares, down sharply from Monday's 1,730,000.

On the curb market activity was at the same pace as Monday—370,000 shares. It followed the "big board" in its mixed tendencies.

Declines were registered by Aluminum Company of America, Colonial Airlines, Glen Alden Coal, Imperial Oil, Electric Bond and Share and New Jersey zinc. Advancing were American Republics, Arkansas Natural Gas, Barium Steel, Louisiana Land and St. Lawrence Corp.

Turkey's Cold War 4 Centuries Old

The cold war with Russia is nothing new to Turkey—the situation has existed between the two countries for the last four centuries.

So said Richard D. Robinson after returning from a three year stay in Turkey and surrounding countries. But, he added, it is doubted that the cold war will break out into a direct attack on Turkey by Russia in the near future.

There is an amazing solidarity in Turkey, Robinson said, that coupled with the country's military program would make any Russian attack a very bloody and costly one for the Soviets.

U. S. Prestige High

Robinson pointed out that Turkey would still like very much to see the United States guaranteed to the protection of the Turkish frontier.

"However, the question there," he said, "is could the U. S. undertake such a program and would it be wise? It is very difficult to get troops in and out of Turkey and when landed they would have to be transported in a very short time clear across the country to the Russian-Turkey frontier border."

The American prestige in Turkey is high, said Robinson, but there is some differences in military points of view. There is also some question among the Turks as to whether or not the U.S. wants to use Turkey merely as a time saver in event of an all-out war in Europe.

Instead of a direct attack on Turkey, said Robinson, the military believes that Russia would first try coming down through Iran where their rewards or spoils would be richer. They would take possession there, he said, of rich oil fields and would probably not meet any violent opposition.

Korea "Muffed."

Two demands have been made on Turkey by the Soviets, said Robinson, and both have been denied. They are:

1. Control over Turkey's northeast provinces.

2. Bilateral control over the straits between the Mediterranean and Black seas.

Robinson, before going to Turkey with the U. S. military government, spent two years in Korea in the same capacity.

"There was a beautiful opportunity in South Korea," he said, "for the United States to demonstrate what could be accomplished by enlightened American leadership but the opportunity was badly muffed. It is a tragic situation because such an opportunity may never come again."

Robinson is in Lincoln for a series of lectures before classes at the University of Nebraska. He is connected with the Institute of Current World Affairs.

RICHARD D. ROBINSON . . . would Turkey be a time saver in event of war with Russia? That's what the Turks would like to know. (Star Photo.)

It's Wonderful the Way Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE —NOT GOOD FOOD

● Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here is why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different!

Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon . . . right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion, flush away nourishing food you need for health and energy. You feel weak, worn out.

But gentle FEEN-A-MINT, taken as recommended, works chiefly in the lower bowel where it removes only waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, worn-out feeling. Use FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "peppy," energetic self! Get FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price—still 25¢, 50¢ or only 10¢.
